HOMING TO CONFERENCE,
LLOYD GEORGE CABLES.

Heart of Britain is Set on Success,
Message to Hughes; Must Settle Big British Problems.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Lauding President Harding for showing statesmanship and declaring that the heart of Britain is set upon the success of the conference, Premier Lloyd George cabled today that he will sail for Washington as soon as his health and unemployment situations permit.

Conference Greatest

Lord Mayor's Banquet.

THE TIMES AND ASSOCIATED PRESS:
LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Lord Mayor, tonight announced the national importance when receiving, replying to the Mayor's cable in the Cabinet ministers, followed closely each gathering of the Guild Hall of speaking regarding foreign affairs. The cablegram which Mr. Lloyd George addressed to Secretary of State Hughes, follows:

"Will you please express to President Harding my very keen regret over his decision to leave England to attend the opening of the Washington conference. The discussion to which he has invited the powers represented at the assembly in Washington this week is of profound importance to the whole world."

"Nothing but the intensely delicate nature of the international negotiations and the absolute obligation which I feel to Parliament and the country to be present until those negotiations are completed and the government's unemployment legislation is operating satisfactorily prevented my sailing last Saturday as I hoped to do. I must discharge that obligation before I leave, but will sail at the earliest possible moment and I hope to be with you before the Conference reaches the deciding stage of its momentous work. I need not assure you in the meantime that the heart of Britain is set upon the success of the conference. The world has needed such a leader as President Harding gave us last July for many anxious months. It may be that it is precisely as President Harding and his advisers did will prove a lasting credit to the clear-sighted statesmanship of the United States."

To what extent Great Britain will co-operate with the United States

WOULD DEVELOP ALASKA.

President's Ambition Told Committee by Secretary Fall and Senator New; Policy to Open Up.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—It is President Harding's policy to develop Alaska, the Senate Committee on Territories was informed today by Senator Fall and Senator New, Republicans. Indiana, chairman of the committee, in hearing on bills to consolidate government activities in Alaska.

"It is the President's policy to open up Alaska," Secretary Fall said. "He added, for the government to place in operation steamship lines connecting railroads and steamship lines of Alaska with the rest of the United States."

The suggestion that the government might do so would be sufficient, he contended, to provide adequate steamship communication by private companies.

Government forests in Alaska contain enough pulp wood to supply one-third of the future requirements of the United States, W. P. Greene, chief of the Federal forest service, told the committee.

LENIN GIVES CONCESSIONS TO YANKEES.

New York Firm Will Develop Huge Deposits of Asbestos in Ural Mountains.

BY CARLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The first real concession granted by the Russian soviet for capitalist exploitation of natural resources has been awarded to Americans, Dr. Armand Hammer, representing the Allied Drug and Chemical Corporation, New York, having completed a deal with the Bolshevik authorities.

President Coolidge will follow the President at ten hours and Admiral Coontz, Chief of Naval Operations, will walk at a similar interval behind Gen. Pershing. Their aides also will walk on the flanks.

Before changes in Alaskan laws can be considered and the resources properly developed, he continued, more must be done to government administrative policies. There are about thirty-eight bureaus which have some activities in Alaska, he said, and he recited numerous instances of confusion and conflicts which he attributed in large part to "bureaucratic jealousies and ambition to control."

"Reduced, as much as the question can be," he added, "I am convinced that the forestry division of the agricultural department should be added to the Interior Department or the functions of the latter transferred to the agricultural department."

If given authority, he said, he would place the railroad under private control, and the financial operation of railroads or steamships. It would not be necessary that this be achieved, the American conference will be the event of the last 1920.

"If the conference ought to come to a stage further, it is the opinion of a similar attitude. If that is achieved, the American conference will be the event of the last 1920."

ing headed today than at any time for years."

"I am now at the most critical stage of the conference. There have been many faults, not all on one side; but I shall say nothing that would make it difficult for us to arrive at an agreement. There are three points to the conference, all with their own difficulties."

"Success depends on the extent you can reconcile and accommodate those differences of temperament, of tradition and of interests. To do that, all must give up something."

NECESSITY OF PEACE.

He emphasized the necessity of peace, saying it was needed for the welfare of the empire, as well as for the good relations of the British Isles. The world aspect of a family quarrel, he added, was not only important, but happiness within the family, but attracted attention of the neighbors.

Declaring here could be no peace and that a great opportunity would be lost if such parties approached the tangled problem determined not to budge, he exclaimed:

"We who are in the conference in behalf of the British government and people regard ourselves there as the trustees of the empire, the guardians of its honor and security. It is a high trust: we promise you we will not betray it."

Incidents of the banquet were the exception, said Premier Lloyd George, and the amount he derived from instructing his daughter Megan, in the use of the Lord Mayor's cup.

The American Ambassador, Harry F. Byrd, pointed out the ancient custom of drinking from the cup and passed it to Lord Curzon. He followed tradition and stood at attention, while the Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, who according to the story, is necessary to prevent the one and drink from possible attack, while toasting the new Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress.

Lord Curzon, toasting the diplomats, referred to the late Ambassador Page's correspondence as proof of how a wise, tactful and high-minded Ambassador could exert a powerful influence in the country to which he was accredited without the slightest damage to his personal loyalty to his own country. He referred to the gathering of statesmen at Washington as a conscious group of the nations toward international responsibility, more than the old balance of power, and the same remedy for the evils from which the nations were suffering. The Spanish Ambassador, Senor Mariano Del Val, responded for the diplomats.

Apostolic Delegate at Washington Will Watch the Proceedings and Report Back to the Vatican.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Pope Benedict approves President Harding's plan to bring about the limitation of armament by common understanding. The attitude of the Holy See is considered, especially by Catholics, as most important since it secures the conference the support of what is termed by many "the greatest moral and spiritual power in the world."

Although the Pope has no representative, Mgr. Bonzano, apostolic delegate here, will follow the proceedings and report to the Vatican. The Vatican's interest in the developments is so great that an allusion to it may be made in the allocation which the Pope will deliver November 21.

A GREATER FREEDOM for HOUSEWIVES

ON Saturday, November 12th, there will be thrown open to the housewives of Southern California a new store for the display, demonstration and sale of electrical household appliances exceeding anything of its kind in the city. Located in the new State Theater Building, at the corner of 7th and Broadway, in the very heart of the shopping and theater districts, you will find the sign of a Big Service—the Clarke Service—at

713 South Broadway

Here, under actual working conditions—the same conditions existing in your own home—you may see and learn the wonderful efficiency, the great saving in time and labor of those appliances which make the modern home truly modern.

You are most cordially invited to this display. You will not be urged to buy—there will be no sales made this day. It is but a housewarming—an exposition of efficiency—an invitation to learn the true meaning of Clarke Quality and Clarke Service. We again urge you to visit this display and become acquainted with the true meaning of household efficiency.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) DENVER, Nov. 9.—Coal production in the Southern Colorado fields owned by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company has decreased approximately 40 per cent in the last two weeks according to statements made today at the executive offices of that company here. The diminished production, it was said, is due to "the use of corn for fuel, a mild winter and the high price of coal."

Widely Known Los Angeles Woman to be Laid to Rest in Santa Barbara.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Final arrangements were perfected today for Mrs. Frances Broome, 60 years of age, who died here Monday. The body will be sent tomorrow to Santa Barbara for burial, according to full admirals.

DIGNITARIES ATTEND. Cars bearing Secretaries Weeks and Denby, Asst. Secretary Walcott, Gen. Pershing, Lt. Gen. Harbord, Admiral Coontz and Maj.-Gen. Lejeune, the marine commandants and their aides rolled up. These highest officers of the Army and Navy formed in line facing the open space between the troops and marines.

On deck buglers sounded for the full formal naval dress, as were officers of his staff.

As the ship's bell clanged out "height bells"—four o'clock, and the hour set for arrival—the bugles rang again. The band again lined the rail. The buglers sounded and down the gangway to face the troopers across the dock, the ship's band came down and formed beyond the ramp.

On deck the soldiers took over the burden at the gun carriage and then could be seen the mounted bandits of the "American Soldiers."

As the casket was strapped in place, an order rang out and the cavalry band swung out and the cavalcade started across the plaza before the Capitol and there troopers again did up their horses and rode across the field with sabres at "present" as the casket was carried on the wide stairway to be placed on the catafalque in the dim rotunda.

The horses swung away at a trot. About them the bandits of the "American Soldiers" followed.

As the horses moved along the road, the buglers sounded oddly against the background of the dirge and as the sound of the pipe died away the gun forward barked the passing of another minute.

Slowly the flag-draped casket was carried into the chamber, brilliant lights leaped up. The cameras clicked. About the bier the guard stood with rifle butts grounded.

Mrs. Broome's body was laid down the plank to the dock. Again the pipe above wailed as they stepped ashore. The unknown was again on American soil.

Slowly the flag-draped casket was carried into the chamber, brilliant lights leaped up. The cameras clicked. About the bier the guard stood with rifle butts grounded.

Battle Tomorrow.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
CLAREMONT, Nov. 9.—Coach Eugene W. Nixon's Pomona College football team is ready for the Whitman Quakers. The Claremont made out his changes through their final workout this afternoon in preparation for the Armistice Day struggle, which is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock. The Sagehens realize that this is their one big chance every year for the season and every man on the squad is primed to the minute.

Unless there is some unforeseen occurrence the Blue and White will open the game with the same line-up that started against the Redheads eleven last Saturday. Braven Dyer and Haughton will hold down the end positions with Johnson and Jackson at the halfbacks, while Verbrink and Harry Bowman as tackles, Robertson at center, and Baker and Thomas at guards, round out the line. Capt. Vorles, Ray Wilson, Gef. Kerner, and Gef. Doughty will make up the backfield.

OUT TO WIN.
The entire student body is out to win the game. The bleachers have been the scene of rallies every afternoon this week, last night's being the largest, with the students showing their enthusiasm.

Following chapel tomorrow morning there will be another rally, and then tomorrow evening the monster yell-fest will be staged. The entire student body will be in the stands to cheer on the visitors more than any other this season and are acting accordingly.

Indications are that the field will be exceptionally fast. Although not a turf field, Alton Field has always been the scene of fast games, and unless it rains Friday's encounter should be no exception. Manager Bill Worder is prepared to do his best.

There will be no practice for the Sagehens tomorrow. The fresh team leaves tomorrow evening for Bakersfield, where they will play the high school eleven.

OUTSIDERS FIRST IN OREGON HORSE SHOW.

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9.—Winners at the opening performance of Portland's annual horse show last night included entries from California, Washington and Western Canada.

Horses owned by J. D. Farrel of Seattle won first and second places in the event for high steppers driven in two classes, and the first, second and third place winners in the sixty-second annual horse show.

It is believed that this is the first team, with the exception

BASKETERS TO BEGIN PRACTICE VERY SOON.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
TULARE, Nov. 9.—Basketball practice for the boys' team will begin the Tulare Joint Union High School team will begin November 14. Early practice is called because of a move to make an entire county "round-robin" league, instead of dividing the county into two.

Stimmons, Porterville, Visalia, and Lindsay favor the movement, and if the plan is adopted three games must be played before Christmas, instead of beginning the season on the first of October. Practice class games will begin the first of the month.

CHICAGO IS TO SEE BIG FIGHT FILMS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Having paid

a fine of $500 in Federal Judge Carpenter's court for violation of the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling in transporting pictures of Negroes, Carpenter, at the Rickard, pictures of the Negroes, announced today that the pictures would be shown.

GIBBONS MATCHED.

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Nov. 9.—Tommy Gibbons, contender for the heavyweight championship, has been matched in a fifteen-round bout with Dan O'Dowd on November 26, it was announced today.

HOOP SPORT HERE SOON.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WHITTIER, Nov. 9.—The opening game of the basketball season for the Whittier College Women's Athletic Association will be played at the Quaker court Thursday afternoon, November 19, between the local basketeers and the Santa Ana Junior College quintet.

Miss Edith Dean, the varsity coach for girls, will probably start the game with Miss Florence Driscoll and Miss Edith Elmore, forwards.

Miss Hawley, center; Miss Vera Hannawalt, jumping center; Miss Margaret Newson, sub; Miss Esther Lewis, running center; Miss Jeannine West and Miss Gladys Foster, guards, with Miss Miriam Johnson, sub.

The Quaker girls have four games

A Tall and Powerful Boot.

Herewith we have a bug-eye view of Mr. Muggs Van Sant of the University of California unloading a punt with his good right foot. Young Mr. Van Sant probably would be a first-string halfback on any team in the country except for the fact that he decided to attend the University of California. He was a former star at Santa Monica High School and has played brilliantly for the Bears in several games this season.

ARMY PRIMED FOR BATTLE.

Soldiers Depending on Gilbert and Butler to Make Bill Ingram Pause and Consider.

Although it is the general opinion that Big Bill Ingram will run wild over the Army eleven tomorrow when the soldiers mix with the Pacific Fleet gridiron at Tournament Park, the wise ones are not so sure. In Jack Butler and H. N. Gilbert the land force has a pair of the classiest ends that ever graced a gridiron, both being of All-American selection a few years ago.

The Army's supporters are counting on these men to sit on William's neck with enthusiasm every time he starts on one of his touch-down tours, and to keep him in its proper place.

Coach Col. Jordan declared that if his wingmen can't stop Ingram nobody can, and he emphatically believes that somebody can.

MAY DROP-KICK.

If the Army men fail to buck a touchdown across they will probably drop-kick, too. Daniels has yet to master the drop-kick, this season and can put the ball over from the 35-yard line every time.

Both teams indulged in light practice yesterday, the Navy taking the field in the morning for a short workout, while the Army pigskins went through their paces behind closed gates in the afternoon.

After the practice the sailors took a trip up Mt. Lowe.

While the Pacific Fleet men expect to win tomorrow's fracas, they are not looking for an easy time of it, but are prepared to put up a hard scrap. The Army, on the other hand, is confident of coming out on top, although the strength of the Navy eleven is not underestimated.

The entire Pacific Fleet will be in port tomorrow, and every officer and gob of the 10,000 is expecting to witness the fray. A naval band, bands, will supply the music for the games, while the R.O.T.C. musicians will manufacture melody in behalf of the Army.

BAMBINO MAILED IN HIS ANSWER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Babe Ruth said today that he had mailed his answer to Judge Landis's questionnaires regarding his participation in the post-season barnstorming tour. Ruth declined to discuss the nature of his answer other than to say that he hoped it will be satisfactory.

OMAR TOFT TAKES TEN MILE RACE.

Speed Devil Finishes in Front of Murphy and Saries in Phoenix Spin.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 9.—Omar Toft was the ten-mile event on today's automobile racing program here in Sm. 50s, and Ralph De Palma defeated Roscoe Saries in a ten-mile match in which they were the only competitors, in Sm. 2-2s.

Tot Jimmy Murphy and Saries were the only starters in the minimum race. Toft's time was Sm. 50s.

Murphy was second and Saries failed to finish because he threw a wheel in the eighth mile. Saries was uninjured. Bill Hepburn was uninjured in the motorcycle race in Sm. 2-2s.

Ray Arley, third.

In the five-mile motorcycle race Arley finished first, in 4m. 24 1/2s. Davis was second and Hepburn third.

Pomona Frosh to Clash With Oil Drillers.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CLAREMONT, Nov. 9.—Still flushed from their 15-10 victory over the Long Beach High School team last Saturday, the Pomona College freshman eleven will leave tomorrow evening for Bakersfield where they are scheduled to play the Bakersfield High School team Friday afternoon. The Sagehens are not counting on being swamped by the sturdy oil men, but expect to put up a valiant fight for victory.

Very few people expected the Pomona babes last week, least of all the girls, to be the ones to win the final period of play that the Frosh won their game, Dick Worrell, left end, and McNeil's Island, running back, mapped out to the writers more than two years ago. It is believed that the general results will be better.

The Coast League will continue to avoid the draft as the average citizen seeks to avoid the gallows. With yesterday's vote on the subject, most of the heads here have turned to the majors for a return to the former plan. The last year of this circuit is considered a failure.

Attorney Sullivan, criminal lawyer and stockholder in the Seattle club, was asked to advise the direction.

As expected, the Morning boys and Charley got a continuance of their 45 percent cut on the road.

The club will be numbered the bottles for five years more, the directors voting to allow this extra 5 per cent for that period.

Encouraged by this act of encouraging infant industries, the players to murder the ball.

SOMETHING WRONG WITH PRESENT DAY KICK-OFF.

Many Demon Football Players Having Trouble Getting Pigskin Down Near the Goal Posts.

By ROBERT W. (TINY) MAXWELL
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCHER)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—One has seen many terrible foibles in the various phases in football, but never has there been one like the initial booting below the usual level, instead of sending the ball down the field as is done by the players. They should observe this.

A BIG HOWL.
While speaking of kicks and things like that, let us take up the goal from touchdown. Last year, the Pitt Committee allowed the ball to be placed at any spot in front of the goal posts after a touchdown, there was a big howl that the kick was a "set up" and nobody could put the ball over the bar. There also was some talk of abolishing it.

However, kicking a goal after touchdown is just as hard as ever. Never must a man kick from a difficult angle, but the most hazardous is just the same. Last Saturday, Centre missed an easy goal. Swarthmore missed one and lost the game, and you can find dozens of cases where clean misses were made.

With the ball in the air, the score is seven and eleven men rushing upon him from the goal line, the kicker has a lot to think about when he boots the ball. It is more difficult to get it right than to get it wrong.

STEIN BEST CENTER.
When all-American honors are handed out this year it will be difficult to overlook Herb Stein of Pittsburgh for the job as center. Stein is without doubt not only the best in the East, but the best in the country. He is a finished player, both in attack and defense, and is responsible in a great measure for the success of the Panthers this year.

QUITE UNUSUAL.
Last week Killinger of Penn State scored a touchdown from the kick-off, and this is getting to be an unusual occurrence. Last year only one was made in the United States, and this involved Davies' run in the Pitt-Penn game. The reason for this is the failure of the runner to take full advantage of the opportunity to get away quickly. Instead, he usually catches the ball, looks around and starts to dodge, whether anybody is behind him or not. George Brooks of Penn used to teach his men to catch the ball and start running immediately. No matter how many tacklers were approaching, it was possible to gain five or ten yards by running straight down the field, and occasionally an opening would be found which would allow a long run. The Army team of West Point liked to run down the middle of the field, and used to get away frequently for a score. A straight line is the shortest distance between two points, and football players should observe this.

ANYONE seeing any of the above cars is requested to notify the theft bureau of the Auto Club of Southern California or police headquarters.

NOT SO GOOD.
Pittsburgh did not make much of a showing in the early games. There was a lot of fumbling, the offense was ragged and it looked as if Warner would have a bad year. At that time Stein was being used at end and the ball center was not against Penn, and many believed he played according to signals. The real truth is that Stein can size up a play quicker than any man we have seen this year. He looks over the formation, shifts to either side before the ball is passed and usually guesses right.

Excellent spring-shooting has been the rule on the shallow ponds of the arborist clubs in lower Los Angeles and Orange counties all through October and up to the present. The duck hunt is the guard of the northern flight is due.

EASY FLIGHTS.
Just how much this will amount to, will be interesting to watch. The draining of the west side waterways in the San Joaquin Valley has added the ducks to their natural sea-stage route to the south, a succession of easy flights. Tulare is as dry as a bone. There is no water up the Owens Valley to lead them on to the Colorado River.

Some grounds exist for pessimistic predictions as to the volume of the northern flight this season; but sport keeps on at its present rate, the duck hunter's property. Against Syracuse and Penn Stein was back in his old position and the team improved 100 per cent.

STEIN AT CENTER AND DAVIES, HEWITT, ANDERSON AND HOLLERAN IN THE BACKFIELD GIVE PITTSBURGH A QUINTEEN THAT IS HARD TO BEAT.

West Virginia is not setting along very well this year despite the change in coaches. The material is said to be very good, but victories have been few and far between. Pitt and Lehigh have trimmed the Mountaineers and Bucknell held them to a scoreless tie. The record is far from being impressive.

RAWLINGS HOME.
Johnny Rawlings, second baseman of the New York Giants who played a leading role in the defeat of the Yankees, has returned to his home in this city.

NOT SO BAD.
Despite the most unfavorable week of weather that ever ushered in a quail season for Southern California, the latest reports coming to the Fish and Game Commission indicate that nearly all of the veteran scattergunners succeeded in getting from a family mess to the legal limit.

"The same bird, earth," as this native son is generally accredited by those who know him best.

The drying, hot winds of early November epitomize one of the most serious conditions menacing the quail, so there evidently is something of a northern flight coming down. Later on, some excellent sport may be looked for there, where the crowds thin out enough to give season duck hunters a chance.

NOT SO BAD.
Duck shooting in the mountains has suffered somewhat from over-popularity, but the number of birds available appears to be increasing daily, so there evidently is something of a northern flight coming down. Later on, some excellent sport may be looked for there, where the crowds thin out enough to give season duck hunters a chance.

CLEAR THE DOCKET.
Court of Tulare County for the first time in many months adjourned themselves to such an extent that the two Superior judges have a working spell in which to consider decisions with little regard to their importance. Cases have been set far into the new year, however, but the court calendar is not as crowded at present as it has been for many years.

Especially is this true in criminal matters, although there still remain a number of cases not even set. More important criminal matters have been cleared away, particularly the recent opportunity to get at lesser affairs.

Alexander Stewart, Pacific Coast leader of community service music clubs, will be in Vicksburg on Sunday, November 27, to conduct musical programs at the church schools, lodges and other organizations. A memory contest, community singing at the auditorium and public program almost every evening.

The work has been under way for some weeks, all preliminary details having been arranged.

TO IMPROVE GRANT PARK.

Duck Season Revived With Coming of Big Birds.

Quail Limits Are a Matter of a Hard Day's Work.

Hunting Conditions Improve With Normal Weather.

Duck-shooting in the coast overflows has agreeably disappointed those who felt that moving the season ahead two weeks would mean a longer interval of poor sport between the opening flights and the northern flight is due.

As weather becomes more nearly normal for this time of the year, particularly if a rain follows the hot wave, hunting conditions will become much better and those who use dogs will be in element. Dogs were worse than useless during the first week, the sagebrush being dry and dusty that their noses were of no service, and no amount of water being sufficient to counteract its pungency.

HARD WORK.

Quail limits are a matter of a hard day's work now, and those not willing to play on that basis should take up an easier game. Fifteen quail are well worth a hard day's work.

FRANCES WHITE REPORTED ENGAGED TO FILM PLAYER.

By Grace Kingsley.

It does seem as though Frances White just can't make her jazz heart behave. This young lady, formerly a member of the Los Angeles musical comedy circle, and latterly a New York favorite, is reported to have married Raymond McKee, a popular screen favorite.

Miss White arrived in Los Angeles a few days ago for a short visit, and she and Mr. McKee have been mix in each other's company ever since. Their friendship dates back over their past two years.

The musical comedy star was formerly the wife of Frank Fay, New York musical comedy and vaudeville favorite, from whom he obtained a divorce shortly after their marriage. Prior to that she was twice wed to Alonzo Garwood, the first time at 15 years of age. The marriage was twice annulled.

Later she was wed to William Rock, with whom she had been vaudeville partner for several seasons. On their New York debut the pair made a sensational hit.

Whether Miss White has pictures aspirations or not would not be learned. Of late she has appeared in a number of big musical comedy hits, including the Greenwich Village.

Mr. McKee is one of the best known of the younger leading men.

He has been appearing in Fox

Charlie Chaplin's Campa. Charlie Chaplin's lengthening his vacation by instead of donning his funny pants and derby hat, he has gone on a camping trip in the mountains with some friends. He expects to be away about a month, following his cuttings, he will commence work on his next feature.

Anita Stewart's Novel.

According to announcement from Louis B. Mayer's studio, the cast supporting Anita Stewart in her new picture, "The Woman He Married," has been completed. The list includes Shannon Day, Darren McGavin, Donald MacDonald, Charlotte Pierce, Frank Tokanaga, and Charles Belcher.

Fred Nible, noted as the director of "The Three Musketeers" and "Mother o' Mine," will make the film.

John Harron Engaged.

John Harron, brother of the late Robert Harron, has been engaged by Metro to play opposite Dana in "The Five-Dollar Baby," which Harry Beaumont is directing.

"Ben Hur" Abroad.

"Ben Hur" isn't to be filmed in California after all. The big feature will be made in England, according to A. E. St. John, manager recently announced. Sam Kingston, formerly of the Fox Film Corporation, is to be in charge.

Universal Buys New Story.

"The Land of the Lost" is the title of a Courtney Riley Cooper story, established producer manager, which will be brought to the screen by Universal with Harry Carey in the stellar characterization. Arthur Statter will write the continuity.

May McAvoy Says It.

Now that skidding days have come, motorists everywhere have their pet schemes to keep the family flying around, climbing the nearest telephone pole.

"Put chains on the two back wheels," says Babe Daniels.

"Chains on the two back wheels and front one," opines Mary Miles Minter.

"Chain all four of 'em," remarks Wanda Hawley.

"Stay at home," advises May McAvoy.

Simon's New Leading Lady.

After a search that may not have proven as painful as some searches, but which nevertheless took Louis Simon declared wore his nerves to a frazzle, a rising young comedian has at last selected a leading woman for his comedies. She is Ann Hastings, a petite beauty of the Chicago plant.

She has signed a joint contract with the producer-comedian and the Vitagraph Company calling for a fabulous salary.

The terms of the agreement are to the effect that she shall play leads in three comedies, after which Larry Semon is planning to produce a huge melodrama featuring her, who will have the principal feminine role.

Miss Hastings appeared formerly in a "Pathe" serial, "Hurricane Hattie." It was her work in this which caused Mr. Semon to pick her out from dozens of young actresses.

Furnum Soon to Return.

Having spent all of six months traveling in Europe, William Farnum, star with the Fox organization, is expected to return to California about December 1. He will work shorter after his arrival on an out-door feature, as yet unnamed. Preparations are being made for the filming, his director Edgar Lewis already ready here.

INDORSE WAR FILM.

Victory Post, No. 54, American Legion, 43rd Street, New York, has issued an endorsement of the government photoplay, "Frontline." It is the opinion of the Legion that while Mr. Rennie is very popular, a handsome young Broadway leading man in New York, outside that sophisticated circle he's hardly known.

In issuing the picture, Roy H. Marshall, adjutant of the Hollywood Post, stated today: "Flashes From the Front, a very interesting Uncle Sam's war picture, in our opinion does a great deal of good for the ex-service men in general, and the disabled men in particular, as it gives the public an idea of what the American Expeditionary Force afforded the men to see the world. For this, and other reasons we cannot recommend 'Flashes From the Front' too highly."

But the lady of the house isn't to have all the fun in honor from him. It would be natural that Mr. Rennie has launched himself into the screen drama for an extended stay. Miss Gish, who has just completed the important role of the blind sister in "The Two Orphans," which D. W. Griffith made like wise to come West. The pair will arrive on the Coast November 17.

The western trip of Miss Gish will serve to reunite the actress to her several stage schools. Consequently, whose marriage you're collecting, took place at the same time as Dorothy Gish's.

James Rennie made his first Broadway hit in "Moonlight and侯" and now he has planned "What—Ho, the cook?" has been assigned to direct "The Dust Flower."

Ralph Her's Widow Marries.

Friends of the late Ralph Her, well-known comedian, will be pleased to learn that his widow, Mrs. Lois Her, has married an erstwhile Butcher, who has been appearing in New York in "Main Street." is the bridegroom. The wedding occurred yesterday in Bos-

Why "Laundered" Shirts Last so Much Longer

No doubt you have often wondered why a laundered shirt wears so much longer; why it keeps so crisply clean.

This is the reason—in laundering these shirts our scientific process fills the pores of the fabric, and presses the fibers closely together, imparting fine, smooth, soil-resisting finish.

We leave no soft, spongy surface to attract and hold dust and dirt; no loose threads to roughen and tear.

As a result, each shirt stays clean longer; each shirt gives you more service—you feel better and look better in shirts which we have laundered.

Give this modern shirt-saving and shirt-cleansing method a trial.

PACKERS PLAN CUT IN WAGES.

General Reduction Forecast by Action.

Big Five Make Request of Employees.

Arguments Are Presented by Louis F. Swift.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—A general cut in wages of packing-house workers was forecast today when four of the big five packers—Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Wilson & Co., and the Cudahy Packing Company—requested their employees to consider, in the plant councils, a reduction in pay to be made effective soon. Official union conferences had not determined the size of the reduction to be sought.

Morris & Co., the only one of the big five which has not an established employee council, is expected to make a recommendation which the others may agree on.

The Amalgamated Association of Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers, which recently took a strike vote, in which a substantial majority authorized Cornelius Hayes, international president, to order a walkout if he was unable to reach a satisfactory agreement with the packers.

STRIKE NOT FEARED.

The big five claim, however, that only a small portion of their men are union members, and that a strike would not seriously affect their plants. The claim does not have been recognized in the industry.

The strike vote followed termination of the period of Federal arbitration, which ended during the war, with Judge Salmon Macaulay as arbitrator, the packers having refused to renew the agreement.

"The packers' action is no surprise to us," Cornelius Hayes, international president of the union, said when told of today's announcement. "And the packers are going to cut wages regardless of what the plant councils decide."

Hayes announced district presidents from all packing-house centers in the country will meet here Friday to consider what action shall be taken under the strike authorization recently voted.

The present scale of wages in the industry ranges from 45 cents an hour for common labor which includes 50 cents an hour for apprentices—a maximum of 40 cents for the highly skilled florifiers. Semiskilled trades are paid from 48 to 52 cents an hour, millers from $1 to $1.25 cents, and hide removers from 75 cents to 75 cents an hour.

ARGUMENTS PRESENTED.

The arguments of the packers for a wage reduction at this time were presented by Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., in a letter today to the members of the uniform plant assemblies. He said in part:

"It is only because of the greatest necessity that we bring up the need for a further reduction in reduction in wages so that we can meet the competition of other concerns operating on much lower labor costs. We have been doing all that we can in the direction of reducing our own wages from such a large part of our expenses that it now becomes necessary to consider an early reduction of wages."

Hayes had a very heavy obligation to our 46,000 shareholders, among whom are 15,000 of our own workmen. It is also a well-known fact that the wages in other industries have been cut down faster than wages in the packing industries.

"Swift & Co.'s labor costs per hundredweight in 1918 was 40 cents, in 1921 it is 35 cents. This has been driven down in price almost to previous levels; prices of meat products also have fallen, yet the difference between the cost of raw materials and the selling price of our products has broadened.

At present the packing plants are working with reduced forces. One company which generally employs 1500 men has 2200 now.

The proposed cut would affect all of the principal packing centers outside of Chicago, as well as the big five plants here.

SALES VALUE OF SHIPS TAKE LARGE SLUMP.

OPERATOR TELLS BOARD PRICES NOW OBTAINABLE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The sales value of steel ships owned by the Shipping Board is between $30 and $35 a ton, compared to sale prices of around $360 a ton recently soon after the war, R. H. M. Robinson, New York shipowner and operator, estimated in presenting today to the board a plea on behalf of pioneer purchasers of government vessels for readjustment of tonnage prices.

Robinson, who is president of the American Ship Building Co., said:

"A reduction of tonnage values to a figure approximating present market values, a buyer's charge on the basis of bare boat hire fixed monthly, during possession; the crediting of sums paid in hire, particularly on long-term purchases, prior to particular vessels of a fleet, giving clear titles to such ships and allowance of free tonnage to buyers who paid cash in full."

SEEK PLAN IN DISTRIBUTION.

Chamber of Commerce is After Statistics.

Wide Price Range From Grower to Consumer.

Retail and Jobbing Problems Are Discussed.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Nov. 9.—Why the finished product of farm and cattle range "costs the consumer more than twice as much as the farmer or cattle grower gets for his produce" was discussed day at a conference held under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The discussion was presided over by J. N. Van Der Vries, Chicago, manager of the chamber. He said statistics gathered by the chamber showed that the farmer and livestock raising received about 37 per cent of the money the consumer paid for farm products.

CHICAGO PACKER HEARD.

Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago packer, said that 52 per cent of the amount the packers received for all the products went to the live-stock raiser, leaving the grower 48 per cent of profit of 11 per cent to the packer.

Vernon Campbell of San Jose, Calif., who was active in building cooperative marketing organizations among fruit growers of the Pacific Coast, discussed retailing and jobbing problems.

"Ten years ago," he said, "we had one grocery store for every thousand consumers. Now there are 200,000 people. Either much more efficient methods must be practiced by the retail grocer, or he must make a larger margin of profit, if he is to survive."

JOBBING CENTERS TOO FEW.

He said that the experience of the fruit business had been that the much unnecessary cost of distribution was due to the fact that jobbing centers were too few and too widely scattered.

He suggested that greater diffusion of wholesale establishments, dealing direct with the retailer, would eliminate much unnecessary jobbing cost.

J. L. H. Jackson, western manager for the chamber, said that the conference was making an effort to find some of the things that are wrong with the present system of distribution with a view to eliminating unnecessary costs and improving the system.

ADMIT MORE JUDGES NEEDED IN PHILIPPINES: CENSURE STATEMENT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Philippine Commissioners De Veyra and Gabaldon today replied to the statement of W. Cameron Forbes that the island courts are clogged, and that justice was slow.

"We admit the need of more judges in the Philippines to expedite the handing of criminal cases," was their statement. "But we deny that the congestion in the islands is any more alarming than in the courts of the United States."

"Mr. Forbes' suggestion recently was quoted as saying: 'The present congested condition of the dockets in the United States courts is intolerable, and results in the loss of evidence, the abandonment of cases, the denial of frequent defeat of justice and lowers the high standard of justice.'"

"We do not feel Mr. Forbes is hardly justified in being so severe in his criticism, neither should he capitalize the situation to affect the independence of the islands when the courts of his own country and perhaps those of all lands are equally congested."

OVER FIVE MILLIONS
NOT YET NATURALIZED

NEARLY FOURTEEN MILLION
FOREIGN-BORN NOW LIVING IN UNITED STATES.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The total foreign-born population of the United States, Jan. 1, 1920, numbered 13,320,492, representing an increase of 464,866, or 3 per cent, since 1910, according to Census Bureau figures made public today. Of the total 6,482,088 were naturalized, 1,222,400 had taken out their first papers, and 6,298,688 were aliens. The remaining 38,509 were naturalized.

The largest percentage naturalized in the total foreign-born population of any State, 73.2, was shown for North Dakota and the smallest, 11.6, for South Dakota.

The tax bill as passed by the Senate was reported back today to the House. Upon examining it members found that the Senate had added $33 amendments. Despite this great number of changes, Chairman Fordney of the House Ways and Means Committee, who will head the conference committee, said the bill probably would be in conference only a few days.

RAILROAD EARNINGS UP IN SEPTEMBER.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Senators Shortridge and Johnson have recommended for receiver of the San Francisco Law Office, Mrs. J. B. Hume of Berkeley, and her nomination will go to the Senate in a few days.

At first there was some reluctance on the part of the authorities to naming a woman for this place, but because of the insistence of Henry Ford, Senator Shortridge, the Interior Department withdrew this general objection with the result that Mrs. Hume is named for this important place.

WOOD OUTLINES HIS JOB.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A Melbourne newspaper today reports W. G. McPherson, treasurer of Victoria, announcing that he had declined a tempting offer of an American loan to Victoria.

The declination, he said, was because he had completed his mission in London for a loan to be available when the government here decided to raise funds through this means.

The task is plain, he said, but not simple to perform, and he added that the loan would be given to the American flag, both Americans and Filipinos.

The Crowley's position is not simple, he said, and the first heavy responsibility will be to start breaking her up, the marine department reported.

INT'L CALL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS,
DEBRENT (Caucasus) Nov. 9.—The elixir of long life consists of soured milk, cheese made from sheep's milk and white bread, according to Dr. Sadevian, professor of physical chemistry at the University of Kiev. He has located a village in the mountains near Temir Khan Shura, the new capital of the Caucasian Republic, where eighteen men, out of a total population of 120, are more than 100 years old. Investigation showed they eat the above named foods exclusively. Many persons transported here from the famine regions of Central Russia are migrating into the mountains where this good is to be had in abundance.

A check for $10,000 has been delivered to Peggy. Besides, she has received a document signed by Joyce, quit-claiming to her and releasing all his interest in the jewels, property and gifts given to her by him, other than those returned under the agreement, three automobiles, the residence of the judge at 423 Park Avenue, New York, a chinchilla coat, a sable coat, and his property right as a husband.

Joyce, on his part, received from his wife a note to property, quit-claims and releases in indebtedness amounting to approximately $400,000. Peggy has agreed back to him $100,000 of his residence, valued at $250,000, seven lots adjoining, and the home farm at Salisbury, Litchfield county, Connecticut. She has also returned the diamond tiara, mounted in platinum, with the diamond and emerald brooch, the pendant, and two jeweled cigarette holders to Cartier, where they were purchased, thereby, canceling a debt of $150,000.

In addition, she has released her dower and other claims against Joyce's $200,000 estate, surrendered all insurance policies and benefits, especially a claim of $2000 on a life insurance policy taken out on him by the California Oil Producers Association, and signed a stipulation canceling Judge Sabath's order of July 8, 1921, granting her $1250 a month temporary alimony and suit money.

ARTFUL LITTLE CREATURE.

Peggy, the same artful little creature who pushed her way out of the obscurity of a small town in Virginia and progressed by way of a telephone switchboard in Denver and San Francisco to the present game. She is letting it be known that she considers a total of $1,000,000 in settlements and gifts a fair exchange for her thirteen months of her services.

"I have something bordering on a million," she said. "But, oh, the pitiful notoriety! I'm glad it's over."

Peggy's million, however, is not the sum of the $1,000,000 worth of clothes and furs the young Chicago millionaire lavished on her appearance. The $100,000 pin money allowed her by Joyce likewise goes to her. Last night Peggy set aside what was left of her fortune for weeks of exhausting her cash resources. Even the $40,000 worth of automobiles, gold-filled traveling bugs and things are not worth what they cost. They were bought for her.

Only the diamond bracelets, ropes of pearls, cigarette holders and the like, have maintained their dollar value.

"I suppose," she said, "I am forever damned by yesterday's court proceedings. I have now got a black eye and have to take it. If the judge rules in my favor, then I suppose I can't get away from it. I could have contested the suit, but that would have taken two or three years, and I want a rest. I am going back to France. The other parties and the movies may be, why I may even write a book. Who knows?"

Asked about Peter C. Merlin, whom Peggy says she has been so good to me," she shrugged her pretty shoulders and replied: "I like him, but marry him, never. I have had three husbands, but I will get one yet. And my next husband will be an American."

Speaking of Mrs. Sadow, who testified against her yesterday, the divorcee laughed a bit too enthusiastically.

"That's all. When women are jealous well, there's no stopping them. And to think how nice it has been to her," she continued. "Why, everyone that she said I wanted to, I would have had to get married every day. Shucks, there's a flock of broken-down dukes and earls looking for women with money. I am glad it's all over."

Peggy left tonight for New York.

Arizona Nov. 5.—New law of taxation and of

of causes that have led to the new material larger, than in other states. Close inspection of the new law shows that the main reason for the new law is the matter of the state's income.

This tax is more than $1,000,000 in Marchandise and $1,500,000 in Community.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—With more than 270 miles of all kinds of street improvements completed so far this year, practically as much work has been done, as in the years of 1920 and 1919 combined.

The solution of Akron's unemployment problem was further aided yesterday when three new contracts were awarded by the City Board of Control. The aggregate cost of the work is $170,000.

Inspections by the dairy and food division of the city health department last month found in the closing of fifty-nine dairies shipping milk into the city.

DENVER.

DENVER, Nov. 5.—The board of directors of the Colorado Mountain Club today came out for a toll road up Mt. Evans, declaring that the toll road plan inasmuch as the State is not in a financial condition to construct a free road.

Ratifications are staying out late in the state's office.

A few years ago it was believed that Hunt led at least three-fifths of the Democratic strength of Arizona, arrayed even more solidly against the party's conservative element than against the Repub-southeast of Bonneville and farmers in that neighborhood are greatly alarmed.

Teachers of Iowa have gone on record demanding legislation which will compel school attendance up to 18 years of age.

KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5.—Twenty-four acres of land on Blue Ridge

Boulevard one mile north of Ray-town sold yesterday at public auction

in Indianapolis for $196,20-

00. The amount $655 an acre. Another tract of nineteen and one-half acres a mile off the Blue Ridge Boulevard was made that work done on the Ajo road has cost $340,- 000. The board asked specific information concerning the Ajo road. Ajo comes report that that camp favors connection at Gila Bend with the road that is to be built by the State Engineer and the State Auditor.

Democrat sources are now reporting that former Gov-

Number of interesting Features

You will find Sierra & San Francisco Power Co. 5% Series "B" Gold Bonds an interesting security to study.

It is given a good character by Moody.

It is the offering of a company possessing large properties, issued for 15 years to the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., the third largest concern of its kind in the country.

The Pacific Gas & Electric Co. assumes the interest on this and all other outstanding bonds during the term of the lease.

Offered at 61½ and interest, yielding 8¾%, the bonds have an excellent prospect of increasing in market value.

We regard these bonds as particularly suitable for purchase by investors who are attracted by speculative possibilities.

Income Basis

In most instances Investments are bought for the purpose of securing an Income. The amount of Income depends upon the Basis upon which the Investment is bought; commonly called the "Income Basis."

The current Income Basis is found by dividing the annual Income by the Investment Cost.

Thus if one pays $80 per share for a Stock which pays dividends of $5 annually, the Income Basis, or investment yield, is 6 1/4%.

This Stock may be paying a 5% Dividend Rate upon its Par. or Nominal Value of $100, but if bought at 80 the yield is 6 1/4%.

As this Income is received in cash each year, it is called the "Current" or "Daily" Income Basis.

This "Current" Basis differs from the "Maturity" Basis which will be covered in the next article.

"Successful investing is a difficult problem. Competent, disinterested advice is helpful."

DETAILS OF TREACHERY REVEALED.

Irish Leaders From Paris Joined in Adventure With Sinn Fein.

[BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—From sources which revealed the details of the German-Irish gun-running expedition from Berlin to Tralee Bay, it is learned that in addition to a number of Sinn Fein leaders who visited Berlin to plan the adventure were several Irish leaders from Paris. According to the informant the gun-running expedition was organized at a conference in Berlin at which two Irish envoys from Paris, one of whom was named O'Kelly, were present.

It also has been learned that the ship Dispendous, which name very likely was changed when the vessel was bought with American-Irish money, called at Hamburg before going to Ireland. At Hamburg Capt. Spindler, German naval officer during the war, took command.

Capt. Spindler is said to have engaged in numerous exploits against Great Britain during the war, several of which were in connection with the gun-running. It is known that on the last occasion during the war he was captured and imprisoned in England.

With arms on board the Dispendous left Hamburg and went into the Atlantic, skirting the coast of France. After a several weeks' wait for a favorable opportunity the ship entered Tralee Bay, where it picked up the two Irish leaders, Capt. Peirce and Capt. Spindler returned to Germany, where he is now hiding.

Wilhelmsstrasse officials declare that they are not in a position to reveal the names of the two Americans who arranged the adventure in Berlin and later went to Poland to purchase a ship and ammunition.

RED SEES AMERICA GOING TO WAR SOON.

SOVIET CHIEF STATES GREAT BRITAIN OR JAPAN WILL BE OPPONENT.

[BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

MOSCOW, Nov. 9.—Nikolai Lenin, soviet-Russian Premier, made the fourth anniversary of the soviet republic today the occasion of an article in an anniversary number, issued by the Pravda, in which he predicts the world chase for gold will result in war between America and Britain or America and England by 1925 or 1928.

The article is entitled, "the value of gold now, and after the victory of socialism." He says the soviet government, with its policy of non-intervention, merely retreats in the attack on world capitalism and is strengthening its position.

These attacks, he predicts, will be given tonight in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room, beginning at 8 o'clock. A series of six lectures prepared by the Department of Health and Fire Prevention will be given at the Wadsworth Auditorium up to December 15. The course has been outlined for industrial employees and will not interest the general public.

To Lecture Observers.

Drs. Baumgardt will lecture on the Mount Wilson observatory at the meeting of the biological section, Southern California Academy of Sciences, to be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce assembly room.

Technical language, illustrated with lantern slides and motion pictures, a trip up the mountain to the observatory. The operation of the great telescope will be featured.

By Romeo Parker.

Ramona Parker, No. 169, Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold a patriotic dance in Ramona Hall, 348 South Hill street, tomorrow evening. In statement recently made, Mrs. Frank Grand President of the Native Sons, said his son over parlor to celebrate Armistice Day as the event in world's history which marked the triumph of democracy over autocracy, with fitting ceremonies.

DRY FORCE HEAD URGES TRIAD OF WOMEN MURDERERS BY OWN SEL.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—"There are sections of our country where a woman can commit any crime and if she be beautiful, well-dressed and artful, she cannot be convicted, no matter what the evidence may be."

With these words Federal Prohibition Commissioner James C. Clegg recently made a speech in his home over parlor to celebrate Armistice Day as the event in world's history which marked the triumph of democracy over autocracy, with fitting ceremonies.

With Americanization as his theme, Haynes pleaded for a higher ideal of the sanctity and majesty of the law.

"If we lose our ideals of the dignity of the law, that principle is in danger," he declared.

Haynes declared the prevalence of crime in the United States was due to lack of law enforcement, but that it found its source in "the back wash of the military tide that has swept the world."

He advocated the trial of women criminals by women, as the only way to have crimes perpetrated by women properly punished.

After a several weeks' wait for a favorable opportunity the ship entered Tralee Bay, where it picked up the two Irish leaders, Capt. Peirce and Capt. Spindler returned to Germany, where he is now hiding.

Wilhelmsstrasse officials declare that they are not in a position to reveal the names of the two Americans who arranged the adventure in Berlin and later went to Poland to purchase a ship and ammunition.

RED SEES AMERICA GOING TO WAR SOON.

SOVIET CHIEF STATES GREAT BRITAIN OR JAPAN WILL BE OPPONENT.

[BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS]

MOSCOW, Nov. 9.—Nikolai Lenin, soviet-Russian Premier, made the fourth anniversary of the soviet republic today the occasion of an article in an anniversary number, issued by the Pravda, in which he predicts the world chase for gold will result in war between America and Britain or America and England by 1925 or 1928.

The article is entitled, "the value of gold now, and after the victory of socialism." He says the soviet government, with its policy of non-intervention, merely retreats in the attack on world capitalism and is strengthening its position.

These attacks, he predicts, will be given tonight in the Chamber of Commerce assembly room, beginning at 8 o'clock. A series of six lectures prepared by the Department of Health and Fire Prevention will be given at the Wadsworth Auditorium up to December 15. The course has been outlined for industrial employees and will not interest the general public.

To Lecture Observers.

Drs. Baumgardt will lecture on the Mount Wilson observatory at the meeting of the biological section, Southern California Academy of Sciences, to be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce assembly room.

Technical language, illustrated with lantern slides and motion pictures, a trip up the mountain to the observatory. The operation of the great telescope will be featured.

By Romeo Parker.

Ramona Parker, No. 169, Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold a patriotic dance in Ramona Hall, 348 South Hill street, tomorrow evening. In statement recently made, Mrs. Frank Grand President of the Native Sons, said his son over parlor to celebrate Armistice Day as the event in world's history which marked the triumph of democracy over autocracy, with fitting ceremonies.

With Americanization as his theme, Haynes pleaded for a higher ideal of the sanctity and majesty of the law.

"If we lose our ideals of the dignity of the law, that principle is in danger," he declared.

Haynes declared the prevalence of crime in the United States was due to lack of law enforcement, but that it found its source in "the back wash of the military tide that has swept the world."

He advocated the trial of women criminals by women, as the only way to have crimes perpetrated by women properly punished.

SPARKS FAVORS MORE OFFICERS.

Councilman Says He Will Vote to Hire Policemen.

Change of Stand Makes Five in Support of Plan.

Speech is Blow to Lobbyists of Labor Council.

The decision as to whether or not the police department is to be substantially increased rests with Councilman Sanborn. Councilman Sparks having yesterday made a carefully-prepared statement from the floor of the City Council in which he said he is prepared to vote for adding 300 policemen to the force. Councilman Sparks's statement is as follows:

"I have made a careful personal investigation of the finances of the city and the needs of the departments. I still believe that the addition of 300 policemen will cripple other departments, as President Criswell and Councilmen Mairhard, Wheeler and Sanborn contend at this time we need to install additional strength light at a cost of $75,000 and fine hydrants costing $100,000; we need $125,000 to pay judgments against the city, and $100,000 to pay for sewer ditches, a total expense of $475,000, and there are numerous improvements which should be made."

CHANGES STAND.

"However, after interviews for the past five days with citizens in every walk of life, including officers of clubs and associations, I have been convinced that the people wish an increase in the police department. If the matter comes before the Council again I shall vote for an additional 200 police, the Council having already authorized the employment of 100 men."

"It is found necessary in the future, in order to maintain this additional force, to increase the taxes in some way. It is expected that the advocates of this increase in the department will not complain."

"The main police question will not be brought before the Council until Councilman Sanborn announces his intention of voting for Councilman Moshet's resolution calling for the employment of 200 additional policemen. Councilman Sparks's speech showed that he will now vote for the Moshet resolution, although it was his and Councilman Sanborn's votes which originally delayed the bill."

SIX VOTES NEEDED.

Six votes are required to pass it. Councilman Allen, Conaway, Landen, and Moshet voted for it. The resolution now has six supporters. With Councilman Sanborn's vote the resolution will pass, and if it is passed, the Central Labor Council, which were much disgruntled over Councilman Sparks's speech yesterday, will have been defeated in their efforts to prevent the police department, which they

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

Mixed With Sulfur It Darkens as Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulfur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage, or the messy mixing at home. All drug stores will ready-to-use product improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulfur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulfur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—[Advertisement].

Indigestion or Sour, Gassy Stomach

"Pape's Diapepsin" gives Relief in Five Minutes

"Pape's Diapepsin" relieves stomach distress in five minutes. You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable: you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its quick action in giving relief, its harmlessness, its certain untiring action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Keep the perfect stomach doctor in your home—know a handy bottle of the sixty-cent case from any drug store, and then if you should eat something which doesn't agree with you, if what you eat acts like lead, ferment and sour, and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all indigestion vanishes. It is the most efficient antacid known—the certainty and ease with which it overcomes stomach and digestive disorders is a revelation to those who try it!—[Advertisement].

HORSES EAT HAY, BUT WHO'LL PAY?

Two City Departments Are Dodging Bill for Feed for ex-Fire Stock.

The forty-two pensioned fire horses now at Griffith Park City Farm eat hay, it appears from a communication sent to the City Council yesterday by City Public Defender Pope, who has charge of the farm, and since July the horses have consumed 161 tons of choice alfalfa valued at $15 a ton, or a total of $2415. The horses are the property of the fire department, which declines to pay the bill.

The park department is using the horses for light work, and this branch of the city government likewise declines to pay for the hay, Mr. Pope reports. Municipal Farmer Pope, having fed the horses, demands his money, as the farm, although a municipal enterprise, is self-supporting. The City Council will consider today Mr. Pope's bill.

has failed to unlease, from being increased.

Councilman Sanborn has sent a letter to the Business Men's Cooperative Association, replying to the association's invitation to attend the meeting of the directors of that organization next Tuesday to explain his attitude on the more popular question of his late bill.

Councilman Sanborn does not definitely decline to appear before the business men, but he suggests that the organization invite members of the Finance Committee of the City Council to appear.

Chairman Moshet of the committee has stated that there are ample funds to provide for the employment of 200 additional policemen. Councilman Sparks's speech showed that he will now vote for the Moshet resolution, although it was his and Councilman Sanborn's votes which originally delayed the bill.

POSTPONE CAMPAIGN FOR SALVATION ARMY.

DETER APPEAL AS RED CROSS AND TUBERCULOSIS DRIVES COME THIS MONTH.

Co-operating with two other organizations which are on the eve of their annual appeals for funds, Brigadier C. E. Boyd, divisional commander of the Salvation Army for Southern California, yesterday announced the postponement from the 12th inst. to December 14 to 17, inclusive, of the annual Salvation Army holiday appeal. His statement to Salvation Army workers follows:

"The annual appeal contemplated by the Salvation Army for November 12 has been postponed for one month.

"The local chapter of the Red Cross is making its annual solicitation November 14 to 24.

Los Angeles Tuberculosis Association from November 25 to December 12. These two fine organizations are in no sense competitors of the Salvation Army, but rather we are all allied in the cause of distress in its various phases.

The Salvation Army, therefore, in order to avoid any appearance of competition in charity, when as a matter of fact we are all working toward the same remedial end, has decided to conduct its appeal for the relief of the needy women and children and for their alleviation during the period of the Christmas season, from December 14 to 17, inclusive."

WOULD AID DESTITUTE.

Harbor Folk Seeking Funds to Send Assorted Suicide's Wife Home.

While the search for R. J. Hawkins, prominent Los Angeles Harbor furniture store manager, who disappeared last week after leaving a note that he was going to end his life, was being continued, it developed yesterday that Mr. Hawkins's wife and baby have been left in destitute circumstances.

Neighbors and members of women's organizations, the harbor folk are raising funds with which to send Mrs. Hawkins and her child to her parents at Rockford, Ill.

In his note to a friend at the harbor, which was picked up beside the body of the missing man, the boy, Mr. Hawkins asked that his wife's parents be notified to come for her and take her home to Illinois. Word from them, however, is to the effect that they are unable to come to her aid.

Mr. Hawkins, in the belief of the police, drowned himself in the waters of the inner harbor near Wilmingtton.

FOR A CONSTIPATED CHILD

A small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint will bring quick relief.

MOTHER, when one of the children is constipated are you going to give the first泻ative within reach? It is dangerous to do so. Some have been known to rupture the intestines of little children. Don't be beguiled by the outside appearance. Look into the formula. Colloidal is seldom necessary: salts, minerals, coal tar, never!

Unlike these, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is admirable for children. It is safe for young people, too. Mothers have been giving it to children for years. They know it does no harm, and is free from narcotics. The formula is on every package, and you can see it is vegetable, just a combination of Egyptian mint and other laxative herbs with peppermint.

Half-Ounce Bottle Free. Few cents constitutes no sum if you do not require a larger one. Send me and I will send a Half-Ounce Free Sample of my Syrup Peppermint. It is a laxative, but it is hardly when given in the amount recommended. Write name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 214 Washington St., Monrovia, Cal. Write me today.

WATER BONANZA IN KERN RIVER.

Report Shows Million-Acre
Flood Can Be Obtained.
Would Provide Irrigation for Immense Tracts.

Show Body's Study Indicates
Addition to Power.

Now more than 1,000,000 acre feet of water can be developed on the Kern River, with a distributing canal to cover an area of 232,000
acres, it is told in a recent report.

The writer, E. T. Harding, has made an extensive study of the Kern County Land

During the past year he has been working on the river utilization problem and has paid
considerable attention to the general water production of the lesser tributaries of the main and of the great extent of pumping and
water levels.

The report states that the full utilization of Kern River requires

the co-operation of the use of its waters for irrigation and power development, according to testimony
admitted he was its father.

The body was found by C. B.
Anthony of 517 West Park avenue,
Glendale shortly after he had rented
a garage at 820 Fernanda Street.

He had noticed a bundle
in the garage, he said, and opened it
to wipe oil off his hands. He discovered the baby's body and Detective-Sergeant McLain of Glendale conducted an investigation of circumstances that led to the death of Wyile. The body was wrapped in a newspaper of October 22, and it was believed it was thrown through
the window, which adjoins an alley. On October 24, Wyile is said to have confided to him that he threw
the body into the window.

Officers were unable to testify
as to the cause of death, but said
they thought it was caused by suffocation. The body was taken to the morgue of Fullerton & Kister,
Glendale, and was buried yesterday
in Grand View Cemetery. The jury returned a verdict that the child
died from "causes unknown."
Known to this jury, and which we cannot determine from the testimony of witnesses in this case."

Detective J. L. Scales of Glendale
yesterday transferred Wyile from the Glendale jail to the County Jail.

Report states, is subject to wide fluctuations. The mean annual runoff for the past twenty-seven years has been 796,000 acre feet.

The total diversion capacity of the canals is about 2500 seconds feet. The lands claiming service under these existing canals total 292,000 acres of which 162,000
are irrigated and 130,000 are unirrigated
since 1914. In 1910 the investigations for the State Engineering Department showed that 118,500 acres are classified as cropped land, 36,500
acres showing indications of former irrigation and 143,000 acres as uncultivated.

MUCH WATER AVAILABLE.

The amount of water that can be made available is described as follows
in the report:

Total 1,022,670 acre feet

"There is also a very considerable but undetermined loss of water to the north through surface and subsurface channels.

From detail studies of the flow of the Kern River, Mr. Harding finds a season of storage requirement of 114,000 acre feet. Proceeding further, he determines a 50 per cent
water deficiency to be minimum in certain years a total storage for irrigation of 300,000 acre feet is concluded to be the most economic.

Under the proposed system there will be a winter flow wasted down
the river to satisfy old power rights
of $6,000 acre feet.

It is proposed that the district itself determine such power as is available at the dam but the other power possibilities of the river canyon are considered too expensive for the results attained.

OWN HUGE TRACTS.

Two large concerns, Miller & Lux
and the Kern County Land Company have controlled the water flow of the Kern River for over a generation. Of 152,043 acres irrigated at some time between 1914
and 1920 from the canal system 117,340 were under the control of the Kern County Land Company.
Of 45,800 acres claiming to have used
"second point" water Miller &
Lux own 12,100.

The active gravity service in 1920 was on 130,100 acres.

There were served by pumps, largely in the hands of small independent farmers, 56,250 acres in 1920. The irrigated lands produced crops equal in value to those grown on all the lands irrigated from the river.

The pumping plants are largely used on fruit land while the river flow is largely for alfalfa, corn and grain.

The report recommends that the present system of earth canals be continued so that the extension of irrigation may possibly be done so as to lands now under or adjacent to these canals and that the lands be continued in the present crop. This puts the water on lands already making some claim thereof and in the hands of the large owners.

DRAINAGE URGED.

As the ground water plane is already very high a drainage system is considered necessary.

This conclusion of the author does not accord with accepted practice in irrigation districts where there is a choice between the irrigation of high grade and of low-grade crops.

There is no physical reason why all the lands of the Kern River cannot be put on bench lands capable of producing the most valuable crops grown in California, it is said.

If the 1,022,670 acre feet of water available were applied to the irrigation of at least 500,000 acres of fruit lands, officials contend.

RECKLESS DRIVERS HEAVILY PUNISHED.

ONE GETS THIRTY-FIVE DAY JAIL TERM, OTHER TO PAY
FIVE HUNDRED FINE.

One reckless driver was given a straight jail term of thirty-five days, after conviction in Police Court yesterday, and a second man was ordered to pay a fine of $500 or spend 180 days in the City Jail.
Charles Zima, 21 years of age,
was convicted before Police Justice
Crawford in University Police Court of having driven his automobile in a reckless manner on South
Los Angeles street. Testimony showed that Zima drove his automobile into another machine and injured a man. The Judge sentenced Zima to jail for thirty-five days.

E. A. Acklund of 863 South Fremont street was fined $100 for reckless driving after witnesses had stated that he drove his automobile into another machine on West Temple street on November 2. Acklund was sentenced by Police Judge Crawford to pay a fine of $100 or spend 180 days in the City Jail. He stated that he would pay the fine
by Saturday morning.

WATER BONANZA
IN KERN RIVER.

Report Shows Million-Acre
Flood Can Be Obtained.
Would Provide Irrigation for Immense Tracts.

Show Body's Study Indicates
Addition to Power.

Now more than 1,000,000 acre
feet of water can be developed on
the Kern River, with a distributing
canal to cover an area of 232,000
acres, it is told in a recent report.

The writer, E. T. Harding, has made an extensive study of the
Kern County Land

During the past year he has been working on the river utilization
problem and has paid
considerable attention to the general water production of the lesser tributaries of the main and of the great extent of pumping and
water levels.

The report states that the full utilization of Kern River requires

the co-operation of the use of its waters for irrigation and power
development, according to testimony
admitted he was its father.

The body was found by C. B.
Anthony of 517 West Park avenue,
Glendale shortly after he had rented
a garage at 820 Fernanda Street.

He had noticed a bundle
in the garage, he said, and opened it
to wipe oil off his hands. He discovered the baby's body and Detective-Sergeant McLain of Glendale conducted an investigation of circumstances that led to the death of Wyile. The body was wrapped in a newspaper of October 22, and it was believed it was thrown through
the window, which adjoins an alley. On October 24, Wyile is said
to have confided to him that he threw
the body into the window.

Officers were unable to testify
as to the cause of death, but said
they thought it was caused by suffocation. The body was taken to the morgue of Fullerton & Kister,
Glendale, and was buried yesterday
in Grand View Cemetery. The jury
returned a verdict that the child
died from "causes unknown."
Known to this jury, and which we cannot determine from the testimony of witnesses in this case."

Detective J. L. Scales of Glendale
yesterday transferred Wyile from the Glendale jail to the County Jail.

Report states, is subject to wide fluctuations. The mean annual runoff for the past twenty-seven years has been 796,000 acre feet.

The total diversion capacity
of the canals is about 2500 seconds feet. The lands claiming service
under these existing canals total 292,000 acres of which 162,000
are irrigated and 130,000 are unirrigated
since 1914. In 1910 the investigations
for the State Engineering Department showed that 118,500 acres are classified as cropped land, 36,500
acres showing indications of former irrigation and 143,000 acres as uncultivated.

MUCH WATER AVAILABLE.

The amount of water that can be
made available is described as follows
in the report:

Total 1,022,670 acre feet

"There is also a very considerable
but undetermined loss of water to the north through surface and subsurface channels.

From detail studies of the flow of the Kern River, Mr. Harding finds a season of storage requirement of 114,000 acre feet. Proceeding further, he determines a 50 per cent
water deficiency to be minimum
in certain years a total storage for irrigation of 300,000 acre feet is concluded to be the most economic.

Under the proposed system there
will be a winter flow wasted down
the river to satisfy old power rights
of $6,000 acre feet.

It is proposed that the district
itself determine such power as is available at the dam but the other
power possibilities of the river
canyon are considered too expensive for the results attained.

OWN HUGE TRACTS.

Two large concerns, Miller & Lux
and the Kern County Land Company have controlled the water
flow of the Kern River for over a generation. Of 152,043 acres irrigated
at some time between 1914
and 1920 from

Although beer is highly recommended as medicine by the revenue department, it is announced from the prohibition enforcement officials that doctors will not be permitted to increase the number of their prescriptions. No physician will be allowed more than his two blinks each ninety days. This is but little better than one prescription a day. This would not go very far in case of an epidemic of thirst. The government believes better get together and have another division or else station a doctor and a fountain pen at every brewery. Somebody is going to suffer for hops under the existing rules.

PINCHED PRISONERS.

There were 465 prisoners in the County Jail the other day. The institution would make a fair barracks for 300 reckless spirits, but is no housing for more than 400 human beings. The inmates know how a girdle feels in the middle of the can. Prisoners are herded rather promiscuously and indiscriminately. Last Friday, when prisoners and visitors were brought together one of the inmates made an apparently official demand upon a visitor for his pass. It was thoughtlessly surrendered and a few minutes later the prisoner was mingling in freedom with the throngs of the street. The prisoner who escaped was under a fourteen-year sentence to the penitentiary and would have been on his way to San Quentin the next day. Breaking out of the city and county jails seems to be almost as simple a process as breaking in. The fight lies in their overcrowded condition.

The prisoners are simply herded. That is about all. They can neither be separated nor watched. There were never so many prisoners as now and the situation grows intolerable. There must be no delay in the construction of the new City and County Jail.

TRY MORAL SUASION.

Dispatches from Washington indicate a possible change of policy in the prohibition enforcement bureau. Results are not what they should be. There are still a lot of thoughtless men who look up to them over they get a chance. Commissioner Hayes is now inclined to try moral suasion. He is said to be planning a campaign of education. He will appeal to the manhood of America. He will point out that the Eighteenth Amendment is in the Constitution at the behest of the people and any law-abiding patriot must accept its terms. Commissioner Hayes is a man of eloquence and power. His is said also to have an ambition to be the next Senator from Ohio and it is barely possible that his plan for a speaking campaign may have its relation to this ambition. There are possibilities. It may be that the sponsors for the amendment will demand a man of their own kind in the White House. Who would be better than the eloquent Major Hayes, who had already stumped the country on behalf of enforcement—as a moral issue? If Maj. Hayes can bring tears and reformation to the bootleggers of the land he will merit not only the toga of a Senator, but the pot-hat of a President.

A HARVESTERED NATION.

In an address before the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce the American Ambassador, Col. George Harvey, said among other questionable things: "I am doing no more than stating the wholly obvious and inescapable fact when I pronounce the entrance of the United States into any permanent alliance, however desirable that act may seem to be, an utter impossibility." Col. Harvey speaks with the hardy emphasis of a supreme being. He establishes himself as speaking for all his countrymen, for all time. Meanwhile the Ambassador has been attending the Council of the League of Nations. He has been sitting in as something more than a spectator. He has not only answered but spoken for his country. Likewise Uncle Sam is at this moment posing as host for an alliance to check the drain of war and foster universal peace. It is no time for Ambassador Harvey to be uttering selfish and inhospitable words. Conditions may arise tomorrow which would make a compact with other nations not only desirable but imperative, yet America's envoy to England renew his arrogant declaration that neither now nor ever hereafter will it be possible for America to have any association or agreement either for peace or war—with any other nation or peoples on the face of God's green earth. "Twould seem that were Col. Harvey deaf and dumb he would the better be able to serve his country. The nations of the world are gaining the impression that the United States wishes to meddle in many things and evade responsibility in all. The Ambassador to England is doing nothing to correct that unhappy and unjust suspicion.

It seems to be confirmed that Bob Meusel, the Los Angeles ball player playing with the Yankees, will soon wed a local beauty. Will he cut first base and lose a three-base hit, as he did in the world's series.

HARDING'S PROGRAM.
The first definite statement of a program for limitation of armaments, given out by President Harding, emphasizes the gap between the actual propositions upon which the diplomats must pass and the dreams of world peace upon which so many people are building at this time.

The conference, it cannot be said too often, is not intended to be the forerunner of the lion-and-the-lamb love scene. Harding speaks of limitation of armaments within a certain well-defined field and as applied to specific nations. Nevertheless, many of the resolutions which are being passed daily by enthusiastic people all over the nation are worded as if it would be a very easy thing for the diplomats in a few months to change the system of world governments and to usher in a new and shining era.

What enlightened statesmen of this country and of other lands hope for is not disarmament to the point where the civilized nations will have no superiority in arms over the uncivilized, for that would be to invite the barbarians to utilize their numbers to attain world dominion. They are concerned with the definite and difficult task of limiting armaments in such a way as to lessen the burden of preparations for war and of arriving at an adjustment of their own differences on a reasonable and lasting basis.

President Harding proposes, for instance, to acknowledge certain stubborn facts, among them the need of England for a powerful navy. But he also makes it clear that this country will have a navy equal to that of England. He intends to put an end to secret diplomacy in the Orient and to revitalize the "open-door" policy in China, thereby requiring a new program for Japan, France and England in the Pacific. He also admits that France should be protected against a revived Germany.

Confronted with a badly tangled international situation, he is not trying to junk our present civilization by removing all of its props, safeguards and advantages, but is seeking a more intelligent co-operative basis for the strong nations.

In such a program it is inevitable that facts will stand out above ideals. The good that will result to the nations outside the conference will be tremendous, but at the same time it will be a by-product.

Harding's effort, indeed, differs from Wilson's fundamentally in this: Wilson put the magnificent ideal first and was undone by stubborn facts which he could not compel to conform to it; Harding puts the facts first and will attempt to work from them to the best international system of which the nations are at this time capable.

Wilson, it will be recalled, was very certain about the ideals to which he would bring all peoples, but was rather vague on a number of the important facts. Harding is very specific and clear in his statement of the facts which must govern any lasting settlement, but frankly does not attempt to say how completely the great humanitarian ideals will be realized through it.

It is not that Harding is callous or lacking in vision. He is merely striving to profit by Wilson's experiences and to build from known facts to an intelligent, though as yet undetermined, working basis for the nations.

There is the urgent need for continued popular interest in and support of the conference. At the same time, it is just as important that America should remember that the world cannot be remade overnight and that President Harding is battling with a problem of almost limitless complications and one in which a disregard for facts would be at once a disaster to the participating nations and a menace to civilization.

GOVERNMENT AND CIGARS.

We fortunately have one of the most benevolent and paternal governments in existence. It may almost be fairly said to be sitting up nights in order to ameliorate the condition of its citizens—that is, in almost every way except in reducing taxes. If it isn't one bureau working for us while we sleep it is another. Now we are informed that the bureau of plant industry has had its experts at work devising mechanism by which to measure the combustion of chlorides in an ordinary cigar. They are also taking the temperature of the coal of the cigar at the moment a puff is taken. It seems that a good cigar can be told by the temperature of the ash and the incineration of the alkalies. The government is going to fix it so that the humblest citizen will be able to tell a good cigar by merely smoking it ten or fifteen minutes.

And yet there are hands who would blow up and destroy our kindly government!

Wander some day into the stately piles—or rather one of the stately piles—at the national capital. Possibly you will find some official of the government sitting with his feet on his desk puffing at a long, black cigar. To the layman this might seem an unimportant and inconsequential performance. Some stranger might even inquire that the man was loafing on his job. But not so. He is gathering important data by which his fellow-citizens will be able to identify a good cigar by the mere application of a match. In the adjoining bureau of chemistry they are finding out how to build a synthetic cigar. Possibly they have the plans and specifications already at hand.

They are going to fix it so that almost any voter can take a bunch of spinach and an oil overshoes and make himself a genuine nickel cigar. The bureau of plant industry does not intend to leave America at the mercy of the tobacco plasters. If the supply of Connecticut wrappers or the crop of Carolina fillers runs short the government will do it so that the glorious alfalfa of California and the boundless timothy of New England will prove ample substitution. It will not be necessary to conserve our surplus cabbage crop in sauerkraut when, with the aid of a thermometer and a dry kiln, the dainty cabbage leaf can be converted into a Havana perfecto. If the government had not discovered that the temperature of the heart of the live coal of a Henry Clay cigar was 732 degrees we might all be smoking Pittsburgh steaks.

The government has shown that the efficiency of a cigar can be determined by taking its temperature. It will also show how an imported Havana preferencia can be made from a small portion of excelsior and half a dozen rubber bands. Then our Wisconsin wrappers can be reserved for the milliners of Milwaukee.

Let us be thankful that we have our government with us and that its manifold functions never slumber or sleep.

PREMIER HARA AS A FELLOW PASSENGER.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

It was with considerable interest that we discovered that the quiet and charming "Mr. Hara" on board was none other than one of Japan's great statesmen, fellow-passenger with us from Japan on his way to the peace conference at Paris. But so unfamiliar were we with Japanese politics that we did not realize until long after that he was Japan's Lloyd George, whose personality had won him through to the highest post of responsible statesmanship through a long and distinguished political career, starting, even as President Harding, as a newspaper editor.

He looked about 60 years of age and wore good walking clothes. He spoke perfect English, with a gentle kindness, and made friends easily with any of the passengers who happened to be near him. He liked to talk with the Americans on board on a variety of subjects, but rarely politics. He was intensely interested in the ship's sports and entertainments and always lent his full quota of enthusiasm to the occasions. But neither he nor any of the Japanese on board deserved the American name furnished by the clever Japanese hand.

One great event on that voyage was a fancy dress ball in which we all had to contrive our costumes out of nothing in particular. And, although the Japanese did not dance, they entered very thoroughly into the dressing up. Mr. Hara did not dress up in fancy costume, but he helped arrange the costume of a Japanese admiral for another Japanese passenger, who was dressed up with mighty caricature, the array of medals being formed out of round tin lids from cigarette cans—and also that of another Japanese with a keenly developed sense of humor, who rigged up as a wild Indian and called himself the only 100 per cent American on board. His feathered head dress was formed out of table knives and forks and looked gorgeously ferocious.

I had elected to dress as a Bowery boy, girl, with a violent checkerboard pattern on the man's checkerboard. I sat at a rickish angle, borrowed from a horsey passenger. I smoked a cigarette and tried to play the role recklessly. There was also a theatrical young woman on board who rigged up cleverly as Sis Hopkins, forming her bonnet out of a cigarette tin. Most of the other women went in for pretty-pretty costumes.

Mr. Hara and myself and a Scotch Gen. Macdonald were selected as the dignitaries. Macdonald wanted to give the ladies a little bit of an attractive surprise in a sport suit. But neither Mr. Hara nor myself thought that either particularly pretty or original. I had leanings towards the Sis Hopkins costume, although I did not entirely approve of the lady. Mr. Hara said he could see nothing, in the costume and would I please explain what she appeared to represent. I tried to give him the pedigree of Sis Hopkins, at the same time reminding him that the lady was highly popular with the men on board and that we did not give her the prize our selection would be unpopular. He smiled and said he did not quite see where the lady's charms came in himself, whereupon Gen. Macdonald grunted she was "merely fast" and he for one would not vote for her.

It is in the center of a Mohammedan population, the most important east of India; and many of them are fanatical in their devotion to Islam. Indeed, during the course of the late war the only mutiny that occurred among native soldiers proceeding to the scene of conflict was among a Mohammedan contingent at Singapore, who refused to proceed farther west to fight against the Sultan. Great Britain, therefore, cannot afford to be weak either in her navy or her army in this great port of the nation.

The importance of a stronghold at this strategic point was understood by the Portuguese, who occupied Malacca, a seaport more than a hundred miles to the north, early in the sixteenth century and held it till the middle of the seventeenth. It was on the way to the Spice Islands farther east, whose products were valued so highly in those days by the peoples of Southern Europe. Holding the island of Ceylon and much of the coast line of Southern India, the Portuguese found Malacca an invaluable naval and military base. When their power in Asia was overthrown by the Dutch, who were essentially traders anxious for monopoly, and never had interests worth speaking of in India, Malacca was neglected until it came into the hands of the British during the Napoleonic wars. The islands of Sumatra and Java were at the same time taken from the Dutch. Holland being then a part of the Napoleonic Empire, but were restored in excellent conditions after the peace of Vienna. It was the statesmanlike vision of Sir Stamford Raffles, who did so much to insure the later prosperity of Java during his few years as Governor, that settled upon the small island and settlement of Singapore, the "Lion City," as offering possibilities of commerce superior to the claims of Malacca. With the growing importance of the China trade Singapore became the recognized half-way port between Western and Eastern Asia; and later, with the opening of the Suez Canal, the recognized gateway to the Far East.

Unlike the Dutch, who clung to special rights and monopoly, the founders and holders of Singapore made it a free-trade city. Particularly did it attract the industrial Chinese laborers and merchants; in many respects Singapore is a Chinese city, two-thirds of its population being Celestials. In one single year recently nearly a hundred thousand Chinese immigrants settled in and around Singapore. It is, as is quite possible, the largest Chinese community in the world. The goodness fallacy has not been more evident for a long time than today, when questions of vast moment are vexing the social mind and disturbing the general tranquillity. Even good intentions and moral conviction are not sufficient to insure correct methods or scientific results.

Again, sound knowledge of fundamental principles is the surest safeguard against social panaceas. No panacea can take the place of seasoned conclusions based upon a facing of all the facts patiently assembled.

Opportunities of great dimensions are knocking at the door of modern business, but opportunities become actualities only as concrete conditions are realized. The business man, like the student, must understand that there is no magic alchemy which turns everything to gold and must pin faith to a REEDLANDS, Nov. 9.—John Break is 72 years old. In his youthful days he was an adept at throwing stones, but of late years has not practiced the art so much. Yet he heaved a good-sized stone so hard and so true yesterday that he killed a coyote.

Mr. Break is the father of Allen Break, well-known orange grower. He was in the orange grove of his son when he spied a big coyote in a row some distance away.

Mr. Break also spied a stone. He picked it up and threw as hard as he could. It was more than twenty feet and yet the stone sped true and hit the coyote on the head, the skull of the beast being crushed by the blow. Mr. Break dragged the heavy coyote to the barn to prove his story.

BLAME FIRE BUGS.

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 9.—Armed deputy sheriffs have watched the coast line of this county for several days to intercept a ship load of liquors which, it had been reported, would make an effort to land somewhere within Santa Barbara county.

Co-operating with the county of forces have been men in power boats ready to flash a signal the instant the liquor runner was sighted. Night and day the watch has been maintained, but with the exception of the coming in sight of a strayed boat which disappeared on the high seas, no thrill has come out of the search.

According to information received by Sheriff James Ross, the ship with which the liquor had left Mexico and Santa Barbara was its destination. Color was given the reported by the presence, parked off the highway north of Santa Barbara, of a small launch which had been driven to the shore.

It is believed that the strange ship which put out to sea had been signaled a warning from the shore that in advance of her appearance no protection would be given.

It is also known that in the search for the missing boat, divers have been sent out to the ocean.

Violence urging the passage of an ordinance of motion picture studios to prohibit cinematograph on public traffic has also threatened sight and hearing and local men of their ability to drive the bill permitted to operate to the best of their knowledge and the satisfaction of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

Similar bodies in the State will be asked to support the measure of such a law by the legislature. The resolutions in the number of autographs in California, particularly Los Angeles, were presented to the transportation committee of the chamber.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Nov. 9.—Fire of supposed incendiary origin last night destroyed the city barn where the horses and machinery used on the streets were kept. Sixteen horses died in the flames.

Of the eighteen animals stabled in the barn only two which were in the corral at the time escaped.

The motor trucks disappeared shortly after the fire, however, and the police and all guard were called off, as it is believed the intended liquor landing has been abandoned.

ALHAMBRA, Nov. 9.—The Girls League Federation of Southern California High Schools will meet in annual convention in this city November 18, according to an announcement by Miss Ada Cross, president of the Alhambra girls' organization.

This convention is expected to bring to Alhambra about 200 high school girls of the Southern California High School with one faculty adviser from each school.

This will be the first time the convention has ever been held in Alhambra and the local girls are rejoicing over their victory in landing it in a fight in which virtually every team in Southern California took part in efforts to win the big annual gathering.

Officers of the federated league are divided among the various schools and this year are: Alhambra, president; Redondo, second vice-president; Pasadena, secretary, and Fullerton, treasurer.

ACCIDENT VICTIM SLOWLY RECOVERS.

[Local Correspondence]
ONTARIO, Nov. 9.—Speechless for three days following an accident in which he was struck by a motor car, driven by Chester T. John, prominent rancher of the Cucamonga district, Kenneth Walls, a 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Walls, 601 East Main street, was unable to talk today, and apparently not seriously the worse for his experience.

The boy was struck by the rear of a car while he was walking across the street in front of his home to rescue a ball with which he had been playing. He was thrown violently to the pavement and suffered a slight concussion of the brain.

Parents and doctors feared at first that the accident had resulted in paralysis of the organs of speech since the boy could not be induced to speak.

The service will be closed with "Taps" and salute to the unknown dead. Following this will be prayer services in all the churches here for the Disarmament Conference.

Announcement was made last night that during the year just closed the post had paid all indebtedness except the bonded obligations which are held by members of the post.

SONG WRITER MAKES BIG HIT WITH P.T.A.

[Local Correspondence]

ALHAMBRA, Nov. 9.—"P.T.A." a song composed by Allen Spurr of Alhambra, blind musician, and played by him for the first time at an entertainment just past.

P.T.A. is the name of the Parent-Teacher Association, has been popular locally that it now has the name of being adopted as a national P.T.A. song. So unsurprisingly was the hit which made him famous.

For the first time here that the federated P.T.A. of Alhambra has taken steps to send it to the State organization with recommendations which will be forwarded to the National headquarters for its official adoption as the organization song.

County Joins in Big Event at Santa Ana.

[Exclusive Dispatch]

SANTA ANA, Nov. 9.—Extensive plans for an Armistice Day celebration and parade to include all sections of Orange County were being completed by the Santa Ana Post of the American Legion today.

The parade, which is to be one of the big features of the day, will start at 10:30 in the morning and travel through the city for six miles in length and will include representatives from Anaheim, Fullerton, Orange, Seal Beach, Huntington Beach, Newport and Balboa, aside from the members that will enter floats from Santa Ana.

Company F, California National Guard, will parade. Veterans of other wars to appear in uniform will march in formation and the parade will be well cared for.

Division 1 of the parade will be formed with Grand Marshall S. H. Finley leading, followed by F. M. Finley, president of the American Legion, D. W. Tubbs of the American Legion, Undersheriff E. E. French and City Marshal Sam Jernigan will act as a guard of honor. The Wrigley Band and the band of the Orange County Militia will follow the band and behind the band will come the militia and veterans of past wars and the drum corps.

The second division of the parade will consist of educational organizations and will be led by H. C. Westgate, followed by the Fullerton Band and the Santa Ana High School band.

Miscellaneous features will complete the program of the parade and will be led by H. G. Scott and the Anaheim bands. The Auto Trade Band and the Mexican Band will be features of the fourth section which will show public welfare features.

An afternoon program, in which a speech by Gov. Stephens will be the big feature, will start at 1:30 in the high school with a double header football game. In which a high school team and the regular high school team will meet teams from Orange High School. Following the football games the program will open with a band at Birch Park. This will conclude with an address by Gov. Stephens.

The program of the evening will take the form of a grand ball at the auditorium under the direction of the American Legion. This will start at 8 o'clock.

What Women Are Doing in Widening Fields of New Endeavor.

THE NEW.

IN STORES AND HOMES.

NOVELTIES, IDEAS AND PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

READERS' DISCOVERIES.

Mrs. C.: "I bought one-half pack of crabapples to make jelly with and, after boiling them till tender in water to cover (out of, of course,) I strained the juice through my jelly bag, then tried the experiment of adding almost a quart of sugar and got 17 regulation-sized jelly glasses out of it. I thought other housewives might like to know about how I stretched the juice in this way."

Mrs. X.: "When my husband refinanced his business, he recently gave me an old, scratched swivel chair. I use it in my sewing room. I can now whirr easily from sewing machine to cutting table."

G. A. G.: "Here is the way I make pretty hemstitched window curtains and bureau curtains. I buy muslin-colored muslin, about one-and-a-half deep hem along the selvage, then draw the threads for hemstitching at the foot of the hem. But instead of doing the hemstitching myself, I save time by having a hemstitching done on a needlework shop (this costs about 15 cents per yard.) When done in this way, the curtains appear to be hand-hemstitched."

May D.: "In this day of beaded curtains and accessories, other women may like to know how to make a hemstitch on a curtain. Dip the end of the silk thread in melted lard and let it dry into a sharp point. The beads can then be strung directly on the thread."

A. M.: "I wash my girl's hair ribbons in the following way: I spread them out on a table and scrub them with soap suds to which I have added a little water."

Well, first the makers create a piping, usually of chiffon or georgette, and as a rule in a color contrasting vividly with the blouse to be trimmed. This piping is then applied, either in straight lines or designs, by means of couching with contrasting silk.

Sometimes the piping is formed into an inserter or again it takes the form of a decorative panel front or sleeves. Heading is always with us and yet somehow it manages to be new each season.

The all-over head application has come to us from Paris and is the effect of richness and contrasts of colors all-over upon navy, or upon periwinkle blue, Mohawk done in coppery tints and an endless combination of yellows and browns.

Effie: "I am sure that the blouse, whether it be for suit or for wear with the separate skirt, is sure to be most emphatic in coloring, if it be the latest acquisition."

Strong yellow, ardent blues and greens, coppery tones running into rich blues and deep tans are among the favorites. Our old friend navy has come forth newly dressed Mohawk.

The inevitable splash of colors, seen in nearly every costume, may without fear depend upon the blouse for its distinction.

The Blouse Emphatic.

The blouse, whether it be for suit or for wear with the separate skirt, is sure to be most emphatic in coloring, if it be the latest acquisition.

Strong yellow, ardent blues and greens, coppery tones running into rich blues and deep tans are among the favorites. Our old friend navy has come forth newly dressed Mohawk.

The inevitable splash of colors, seen in nearly every costume, may without fear depend upon the blouse for its distinction.

Effie: Blousing.

As a matter of fact, blousing is by no means confined to the blouse. The one-piece dress has taken to blousing an obviously as to render it more comfortable than the separate top garment. And as for blouses, no one seems to care how puffy she appears above the so-called waist line, so long as her blouse is sufficiently bloused.

Blonderess is, of course, disclosed by the closely fitting skirt and by the pedal and above pedal extremes; for, oh, rest! it is still necessary to be well, even though we do not desire to be well. It must be obviously bloused; but not normal.

The Trimming.

We did not think about blousons. There is nothing to talk. The trimming of the newest waist is truly a matter of consideration. Anything so new. Such one might believe that the waist of the alluring blouson. The very newest is coming since. This carries to you no meaning?

Fashions have arrogated to themselves an importance not known of them for many seasons. The full, gathered or pleated sleeve, finding harbor at the waist line, has become a favorite. It is seen upon many of the newest blouses. In such cases, the cuff is likely to be wholly formed from the trimming which adorns the body of the blouse or, in case of such trimming, is made obvious upon the bracelet.

The mandarin sleeve has come to us not only in pristine shape, but in many forms of imaginative construction until it is a question whether the oldest mandarin would recognize his one-time favorite. Many of those arm coverings are ramifications of imagination, novelty and practical minds see dangers in them, unless their wearers elect to lounge at ease and to be waited upon by many waiters. That is to say, shop assistants will be no feet at all compared to that of partaking at table while wearing one of the loose-wristed, extremely elongated sleeves appropriate to many of the newest frocks and blouses. And yet—well,

The double-breasted waist boasts a smart rolling collar of self material. The straight trousers of contrasting material are fastened to the waist with large pearl buttons.

The boy's suit is cut in sizes 2, 4 and 6 years. Size 4 requires 1½ yards 36-inch material for waist with ¾ yard 36-inch material for trousers. Price 15 cents

TELLS PROMISE OF NEAR FUTURE

Scientist Expects Enormous Development Here.

Spiritual and Material Will Progress, He Insists.

Ebell Club Members Hear of Vice, Drug Traffic.

BY MYRA NYE.

Declaring that the next twenty years may see greater strides in scientific, spiritual and moral progress than was made from the days of ancient Egypt to the days of our own grandfathers forty years ago and that Southern California will be the center of this progress, Dr. Robert A. Millikan, chairman of the executive committee of the California Institute of Technology, spoke yesterday before a large audience of women at the Ebell Club luncheon.

His topic was "Theories and Experiments in New American Education."

Dr. Millikan is the only man in the world who has been known to teach an atom with sufficient accuracy to have his measurement adopted as the recognized standard by other scientists.

So marked as to make his talk interesting to the audience was Dr. Millikan's admission that work of the scientist intended to do at the California Institute of Technology where he has recently come from the University of Chicago, it is evident that he was torn between a scientist's dislike of even the appearance of exaggeration and his keen desire to give accurate information on the tremendous possibilities in science in releasing energy from atoms.

There are three great problems that confront the world," said the speaker. "Out of these grow every other problem. The first is scientific. It is the crying need of the world to appreciate the significance of moral and spiritual values. If we did appreciate these there would have been no World War and there would be no wars in the future."

"The other two problems are the political development and realization of the principles we already know. Water falls, in coal and in electricity, and the last problem is that ours over at the California Institute is the development of this new and almighty unmeasured of energy that is stored in atoms."

Very smart is the inverted pleat. The square decolletage is in favor.

A black crepe wrap is lined with pale green.

A wide white wrap appears in fancy cape effects.

The wider sleeve, with no cuff, is a new note.

Richly beaded girdles are worn low on the blouse.

Heavy silk cord belts are seen on handsome coats.

Fawn colored falcon feathers in a black felt hat.

The dove feathering the side opening is being worn.

Full-length coats blouse over a belt at a low waistline.

A black gown with white satin belt with black satin.

Two cartridge pleated panels in long chevron fringe.

The skirts and sleeves of new coats have been gathered.

Even elaborate fur-trimmed suits are girdled with metal belts.

The Tuxedo front effect is another of Madame's specialties.

A front of blue chiffon veils with a ruffled lace edging.

Cire ribbon roses appear on small children's dance frocks.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Mrs. Robert London and her daughter, Mrs. Hansen Moore, presided at a luncheon yesterday at the California Club. It was at first arranged in honor of Mrs. Eberle, who left with Admiral Eberle when he was suddenly called to Washington.

The table was beautiful with its pink roses and greenery. The flowers were from the garden of Mrs. Eberle. The roses were from San Diego waters and Mr. O'Connor and one or two others. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Nickerson are to have a company of twelve guests and Misses Alice and Mrs. H. Thompson are to have eight. Mrs. Madge Jamison, Mrs. M. C. Cunningham and Mrs. William Snyder and others are entertaining.

At Armistice Ball.

Ernest May will entertain a company at dinner and at the Armistice ball tomorrow evening at the Maryland Hotel in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford May.

Miss Frances Chittick will entertain a dinner party, including Miss Genevieve Jeandon, Jean Macaulay, Barbara Thompson, Lieuts. Herbert Chadwick and Donald Keith, of the demobilized now.

Misses Ruth and Dorothy Ladd, of the demobilized now.

Planning to leave for Europe the first of the New Year and will take her younger son, Robert Stack, with her. She will study singing while abroad and expects to visit in all the capitals of Europe before returning.

At the Writers' Cramp.

The Writers' Cramp—a cabaret dinner-dance to be held at the Ambassador, December 1, promises to be a great event in society and entertainment, according to dinner.

The ring-table tables are bringing an extra price and most of them have been sold.

Mrs. Mary McDonald, Mrs. Walter C. Brooks, Mrs. Donald Frick, Mrs. Walter B. Burch, Mrs. John C. Macfarland, Mrs. Harold Stockton Cook, Mrs. Curtis Williams, Mrs. William G. Brewster, Mrs. Charles Edward French and Lieut. Charles H. Bruning of San Francisco.

Mrs. Hugh Livingston Macmillan and Mrs. Thompson Buchanan are side by side.

Roger Deering has one of the tables reserved at the Hotel Ambassador.

No. 4—Illustrating Lamp Finger.

Now that sugar has come down in price, this finger trick will prove a nice perplexing problem.

A match is set to a lump of sugar which ignites and burns with a slow blue flame. When the spectators attempt to duplicate the feat, their efforts are unsuccessful—the sugar will not light.

To prevent this little mystery, one corner of the lamp is secretly dipped in oil. When the match is set to the lighted match, the spectators are unacquainted with the secret will find the trick impossible.

CALL OF PEACE IS SCHEDULED.

"Times" Siren is to Summon America Sons Tomorrow.

Eleven Camps Will Respond, Give Patriotic Program.

Ritual, Drill, Talks Ready for Street Ceremony.

When the first piercing shriek of The Times' siren splits the welkin—if you know what that means—at 8 p.m. tomorrow 500 members of the Sons of America will celebrate the anniversary of the end of the World War with a patriotic program on the principal downtown street corners.

Eleven camps of the Sons of America, consisting of boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years, will simultaneously open their parades in all directions from the siren on the corners along Broadway between First and Eighth streets and on Seventh between Spring and Olive streets. At the signal given by the siren, the program will begin with the favorite song of the A.E.F. "There's a Long, Long Trail A-Winding."

The chief of each camp will make appropriate address on the significance of Armistice Day. The Sons of America ritual and triangle drill will then be executed by each camp simultaneously.

"Let's get off at the next corner, Clara, and I'll disclose the secret—all there is to it. I tell it in my home that the result will prove as great a blessing to you as you can see for yourself that it is to me."

Later that afternoon Clara tramped lightly up the stone steps leading to her home. Removing her hat and fur, she tried to get John on the phone, but the telegrapher informed her that he had left the office early. He was not expected to return before closing time as he had gone to play golf.

PEACE DAY MARCH LINE ANNOUNCED

Armistice Parade Schedule for Los Angeles Complete, Col. Williams Says.

Col. Arthur Williams yesterday completed arrangements for the parade on Armistice Day.

The line of march will be from West Adams and Figueroa streets to Figueroa to Exposition Park, where the American Legion and other war organizations will celebrate the day. All units will be in position at 10:30 a.m. and the march will begin at 11 a.m.

Victor Post, American Legion men will assemble at Twenty-first and Figueroa streets; Los Angeles Post, members at Twenty-first and Figueroa streets; Hollywood Post, members at El Centro street and Hollywood Boulevard, at 10 a.m., and go to Twenty-first and Figueroa by automobile; Sunshine Post members at Twenty-first and Figueroa streets; The Women's Auxiliary of American Legion Post No. 8, at Twenty-first and Figueroa streets; Disabled Veterans of the World War in automobile at Twenty-first and Figueroa, at 40 Hommes St. Chevauex, at Twenty-third street, east of Figueroa.

SING REQUIEM MASS ON ARMISTICE DAY.

SOLEMN RELIGIOUS SERVICE AT ST. BASIL'S TO HONOR NATION'S HEROES.

Announcing that the Chamber of Commerce will be closed Armistice Day, Frank Wiggin, veterans secretary, voiced the hope that all merchants and manufacturers and other business establishments of the city would observe the day in a similar manner. He called attention to the solemnity of the anniversary and its importance in the world's history. He urged that the observance be general and in keeping with the significance of the day.

A catafalque in commemoration of the heroic dead of the American Army and Navy will be erected in the church and a guard of soldiers will be detailed to stand by the commandant. Three soldiers who died in the war will be selected as representatives of the American dead, and their names called as a roll call. One will be a Jew, the second a Protestant and the third a Catholic. The drum will answer the roll for the voices that are silenced by death. The bugle will sound the roll for a general, will be blown the bugle down as at Arlington Cemetery, Washington. The roll will be called by Col. H. L. Houghorne, who is a bearer of the Congressional Medal of Honor, and will sound the solemn strain of "Taps." The soldier guard will be a First Sergeant, Perra, Ward and Tompkins and Corp. Greppin.

A service of requiem mass will be rendered for the first time in Los Angeles by the following choir:

The Misses Maureen, Cantillon, Agnesine Hamilton, Mary O. Martin, Gertrude Baker and Mrs. Ethelphine Doran, soprano; Miss Frances A. Dilger, and Misses G. E. Curran and Edward C. English alto; O. E. Curran, John Elder and Edward H. Lester tenor; Mr. John Crockett, Paul M. Ferrish, Thomas J. Masterson, Bernard Robertson and J. D. Thomas, Jr., basses. Edward J. Whelan will be organist and director.

Wanted an Experienced Artist.

Mrs. Newrich called at the studio of a prominent artist to have her portrait painted.

"Will you kindly sit down and we will talk for moments," said the artist.

"Well, I'm in a hurry. Is your master busy?" she asked.

"Yes, madam. He's engaged on a sketch."

"On a study!" exclaimed Mrs. Newrich. "This I'll go elsewhere. I want an artist who has got all through with his studies."—(Boston Transcript.)

BLEDSOE TO SPEAK ON PEACE DAY.

South Pasadena Announces Program of Exercises and Athletic Events.

Selecting U. S. Dist. Judge Bledsoe as orator of the day, South Pasadena Post No. 146, American Legion, has just announced its program for the celebration of the day.

Post will conduct a patriotic program on the principal downtown street corners.

The parade will form at 11 a.m.

and proceed from the intersection of Harrison street and Mission Road to Fair Oaks avenue, then south to Monterey Road, west to Fremont, and south to the high school where exercises will be conducted on the steps of the high school building.

Among the numbers will be "To the Colors," by Bugler Harry Kiper, invocation by Dr. E. G. Livingston, the "Song of the Battalion," march, silent tribute to the dead, victory by flying squad, reading of "In Flanders Field," by Mrs. Otis B. Manchester, presentation of cup to the champion, and the singing of "We Are Our Own Best Advocate" and "The Star-Spangled Banner."

The football game will engage two teams representing the South Pasadena and Alhambra Legion posts. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.

At 5 p.m. there will be a dance on the high school tennis court, and at 8 p.m. an entertainment will be given at the Women's street contest and address by Judge Bledsoe.

FIFTEEN TRUCK DRIVERS FINED.

War on Glaring Headlights and Overloads Opens.

Both Owners and Chauffeurs Are Facing Arrest.

One Man Accused of Seven Traffic Law Violations.

Open warfare has been declared by county motorcycle officers upon drivers and owners of overloaded trucks and automobiles with glaring headlights. Fifteen truck drivers yesterday were taken before Justice Hinshaw, who fined each $20, suspending $10 of the fine in cases where it was the first offense. It was stated by the court that leniency of this kind will not be shown again to offenders.

The court admonished all that the owners of trucks, stages and other conveyances, as well as the drivers, as well as the drivers, may be arrested for violating the State Motor Vehicle Act.

"I sympathize with the man who is compelled to do so with an automobile or truck having glaring headlights, an overload or defective brakes. If he refuses to take out such a car he loses his job," the court added.

It was pointed out that the maximum weight of any vehicle permitted on a county or State roads is 28,000 pounds, and loads are limited to 700 pounds for an inch of the channel beam width of the road.

The court assessed fines totaling $1,161 for different offenses. L. R. Salter, a rancher living near El Monte, was accused of seven violations of the traffic law. The man, having an overload on the trailers, having no license plates on the trailers, no driver's license and no special permit from the Board of Supervisors to operate a tractor. He was ordered to pay a deposit of $100 and had to wait until all other cases were heard. Then the court continued the case a week and ordered the owner of the tractor to court.

Boiler Maker Wins Success as Scenarist.

The cook, the newsboy, the automobile mechanic, the preacher, the doctor, the lawyer, the society matron, the grocer, the baker, the candlestick maker, are all doing it. They are all writing scenarios.

So said Francis Camden, late boiler-maker in the United States Navy. During the World War Mr. Camden's shoulder was dislocated and, because he was unable to pursue his former occupation, the government undertook to train him as a cinema cameraman.

While working as cameraman at the Universal studio, Mr. Camden began to write scenarios and the other day sold one to the James Cagney Company for $2000. The company has also hired him to assist the director in the production.

COURTING IN CHURCH CLUB GETS DEFENSE.

MEETING OF SEXES THERE BETTER IN PARKS. SAYS MRS. METH.

"For courting purposes a church club is better than a public park bench," according to Mrs. Francis Meth, who yesterday thus answered critics who accused her of turning the Girls' Corner Club, near the First Baptist Church, into a courting place.

A feature of the social welfare activities of the women of the church is the supper served in the basement of the church every Wednesday evening, the patrons being young business women and working girls of Los Angeles. These girls also enjoy the privilege every Sunday afternoon, of meeting at the Girls' Corner Club, which, it is claimed, is the only objection made to their inviting young men friends to the club.

"IOWA" NAMES CHIEFS.

Officers and Directors are Selected by Association in Southland.

Five new officers and five new directors to manage the affairs of the Iowa Association of Southern California for the coming year were chosen yesterday at the annual election of the association held at the Continental National Bank.

The officers elected were Judges G. C. Parsons, president; B. Smith and H. M. Bigelow, vice-presidents; Frank N. Nichols, treasurer; C. H. Parsons, secretary.

The new directors are Judges William E. Wilbur of Los Angeles; John G. Spelman of Long Beach; A. B. Shaw of Sierra Madre and C. C. Caves, Pomona. The other directors are Justice Wilbur, Frank N. Nichols, H. M. Bigelow, A. L. Steadman, Col. J. C. Clegg, J. Steadman, Col. E. S. Ormsby, Judge Houser, Frank H. True and C. H. Parsons.

Says Husband Found Too Many "Right Women."

Monday he said, "I think I have found the right woman and all I want is my clothes."

On Saturday he said, "I made a mistake. Will you forgive me?" She did.

But it was useless, according to a divorce complaint filed yesterday by Jennie Bowerman against William G. Bowerman, for Mr. Bowerman found another who was the "right one" and strayed away from the family fold again, she charges. The last time, however, Mrs. Bowerman turned back telling him that she had forgotten on the previous occasions and wouldn't again.

The complaint, which was presented by Attorney Wetherburn, Hoyt and Jones, also names another woman, "Ida," who took a great deal of Mr. Bowerman's attention. It is said, the couple were married in Chicago on June 21, 1911, and separated last September 18.

WIFE WEDDED LONG AGO SEEKS DIVORCE.

Otto Wiederhold, among other acts of cruelty, beat his wife, Aida May Wiederhold, according to a divorce action filed yesterday by Mrs. Wiederhold. She specified a number of occasions in her complaint since the marriage of the couple in Davenport, Iowa, Oct. 25, 1892, when Otto, then 18, was a boy of 18 and committed other acts of cruelty. Mrs. Wiederhold is now living in Long Beach and is represented by Attorney S. H. Underwood of that city.

IN FILM OF BATTLE WHERE HE WAS SHOT.

By a peculiar twist of events, David Levine, a resident of this city who served with Company H, Three Hundred and Seventh Infantry, Seventy-seventh Division during the recent war, is appearing in a picture to a picture, "Flashes from the Front," showing at Grauman's this week and which depicts his company in action during battle where he received 2 wounds. In the signal corps picture, which $1000 was given to the American Legion Armistice Week celebration, the storming of Troy on July 18, 1918, by American troops is depicted. It was in this affray that Mr. Levine sustained his wounds.

DRUNK AUTOIST FINED.

Broker Pleads Guilty and Court Assesses Heavy Penalty.

C. P. McNulty, an insurance broker, charged his plea to guilty of driving an automobile while intoxicated yesterday when he appeared before Judge W. T. Tracy, court reporter, who imposed a fine of $500 and allowed him to pay on installments until $200 is paid, when the remaining fine will be suspended.

HIT HER WITH POKER, IS CHARGE OF WIFE.

Charging that he had struck her with a poker, Mrs. Grace J. Woodworth yesterday sued Henry W. Woodworth for divorce. The complainant states that the couple were married in Vancouver, Aug. 25, 1914, and separated August 1 last and during that time he beat her on a number of occasions. Mrs. Woodworth is represented by Atty. Griffith Jones and John J. Craig.

DESERVED, SHE CHARGES.

James D. Smith of Long Beach deserted Mrs. Ethel Smith and their two children, according to a divorce complaint filed yesterday. The separation of the Smiths took place on Sept. 1, 1919, two years after their marriage, it is stated. Mrs. Smith is represented by Attorney G. F. Peck of Long Beach.

The People and Their Daily Troubles

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

Domesticity on the Half Shell.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

A young business woman asks this question: "If the woman works after marriage, has she a good chance for happiness as if the wife gave up her business, and became a purely domestic woman?"

I think that the answer to that question depends entirely on two things. First, on the amount of the family income. Secondly, on the caliber of the man.

The very bedrock on which the happiness of every marriage is founded is the dollar. No matter how much people love each other, no matter how congenial they are, no matter what soul mates they are, they will be utterly miserable together unless they have an income on which they can live comfortably, and in the way in which they have been accustomed to live.

At the gathering of poets and novelists, about a couple of young paupers getting married.

Married men who are capable of sympathizing with their aspirations and who do not expect to turn them into coconuts.

Whether a marriage in which the wife continues in business after marriage is happy or not depends mostly upon the man and what he marries him for.

The woman who is most prosperous and for decades to come

there will be no possibility of her taking up force of arms.

Peace of the world means peace of all nations, not just our own. We feel in median sympathy with Germany.

I have seldom liked the Germans individually because I am too grained in the wool an American,

but I feel that the German is the bravest and most eloquent of all the world.

No woman can meet husband with a sweet smile and a savory dinner

if she has been kept late at her work during a mad, mad rush, as she was to be. A woman cannot serve two masters acceptably than a man can.

Now will a man be happy if his wife works after marriage if he is of the vain, egotistic type who expects a wife to kowtow before him and grovel at his feet?

Such a man is absolutely bound to have a wife who is financially dependent upon him, and he would prefer to have a housekeeper and A1 business woman. She can no more serve two masters acceptably than a man can.
